ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to Dr. M. Sivamurthy, Research Supervisor, for his constant encouragement, keen interest and acute guidance in completion of this work. Inspite of his busy schedules, he was never perturbed and tired in supervising my work.

I gratefully acknowledge the co-operation received from all the aged respondents, who were the main source of the field data for this study.

I thank Dr. M. S. Chikkagoudar, Professor & Chairman, Department of Statistics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, who has extended all possible help and co-operation to do research in the department.

I wish to express my gratitude to His Holiness Shri Siddashivayogigalu Swamiji, Siddashrama, Sri Siddarudamath, Devarhubli (study village) for His blessings.

I am thankful to the Management, B.M.H.E. Centre (C.S.I.), Dharwad for giving me an opportunity to improve my academic qualification. Also my thanks are due to Principal A. E. Goudar and former Principal N. B. Ghodke, C.S.I. College of Commerce, Dharwad for their encouragement and co-operation. My thanks are due to my college colleagues for their co-operation during this course.

I owe my thanks to the authorities of Karnataka University, Dharwad and to the library staff for their co-operation.
My sincere thanks are due to Shri. J.B. Hasalakar, Research Officer and Shri. A.P. Katti, Deputy Director (Rtd), Economic Research Institute, Dharwad, for their help in framing the questionnaire. Also my thanks are due to Shri. S.B. Ganiger and Miss. Sanakal, Librarian, Economic Research Institute, Dharwad, for providing me all the help and co-operation, in getting the reference materials.

My special thanks are due to Shri. S.S. Patil, Devanur, for his help in conducting the survey and afterwards.

I am especially thankful to Prof. Rajendran and staff, Department of Computer Science, S.D.M. Engineering College, Dharwad, who were extremely helpful in tabulation of the data. Also my thanks are due to the staff of the computer section, Cairo Demographic Centre, Cairo, for the analysis of data.

I thank Dr. S.S. Naregal, Reader, Department of Geography, Karnataka University, Dharwad for his encouragement and well wishes in completion of this work. Also my thanks are due to Dr. A.S. Kadi, Reader, Department of Statistics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his co-operation during this course.

I gratefully acknowledge the warm and affectionate treatment extended to me by Mrs. Sivamurthy, whenever I used to meet Dr. Sivamurthy, during his visits to India.

My friends, Dr. Shiva Halli, Winnipeg, Canada and Dr. Dayanand Naik, Norfolk, VA, USA, were constant source of encouragement and also provided me the reference materials whenever I demanded for. I am greatly indebted to them.
I would like to express my thanks to Prof. V.C. Hiremath, Belgaum, for helping me in proof reading and correction of the typed script of the thesis.

I am grateful to my friend Prof. Som Patil for his moral support, encouragement and assistance extended to me in completion of this work.

I am indebted to my several friends who helped me at various stages of this study, but remained unnamed for want of space.

My wife Renuka is a constant source of my inspiration. Without her encouragement and pressure I doubt whether I would have completed this work. My wife and children - Santhosh and Deepti had to forego many comforts, while I was busy with this study which took undue long time. I must express my appreciation for their patience and the endurance.

Finally, I thank Mr. Santosh D.N. for typing this thesis neatly.

Dharwad.
