Acknowledgement

The successful completion of this doctoral research work gives me the opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to those exceptional persons whose contributory efforts and blessings helped me to materialize my dream coming into reality.

At very outset, I express my sincere gratitude and deep respect to my Supervisor Dr. Meghali Goswami, Assistant Professor, Department of History of Art, Kala Bhavan, Santiniketan. Without her spontaneous support it would not have been possible to complete the present study. I really appreciate her ideas and meticulous approach in pursuit of research and knowledge. Her suggestions during the limited period of research work and co-operative nature provided immense support to me to complete this Ph.D thesis. I extend my deep sense of my gratitude to key informant who provided information and helped me during the data collection process.

I would like to express my deep respect to Dr. Nirmal Kanti Roy, Head of the Department of Visual Arts for his continuous help, support, and co-operation in completing my research work. My sincere gratitude also goes to all faculty members of department of Visual Arts for their valuable suggestion in different phases of my study.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Sajal Nag, Department of History, Bhuleswar Mate, Dean, Abanindranath Tagore School of Creative Arts and Communication Studies, Assam University Silchar, late Prof. Goutam Biswas, Dept of Philosophy, Prof. N.B. Biswas, Department of Education and Dr. Projit Kumar Palit, Associate Professor, Department of History for their valuable suggestion in different stage of my study.

I express my sincere gratitude and deep respect to Mr. Vinay Kumar, BAS, Director (Cultural Affairs) Youth Art and Culture Department, Government of Bihar for his able guidance and necessary information regarding survey in Madhubani and Orissa. I am thankful to Madhubani artisan Mr. Rajkumar Lal Das who introduced me with famous artisans of Jitwarpur village. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all village artisans of Jitwarpur and Raghurajpur who have provided me their valuable time to conduct personal interviews.

I express my sincere gratitude and deep respect to Swami Parishuddhanandaji Maharaj, and Swami Satsanganandaji Maharaj of Ramakrishna Mission, Puri. Their support helped me to complete my field survey of Raghurajpur.

I thank Mr. Ramakrishna Bedala, Regional Secretary, Lalit Kala Akademi, Orissa and Mr. Manas Jena, Lecturer, Orissa Art Collage who have given me necessary information on patachitra artisan of Raghurajpur as well as Bhubaneswar.

I am obliged to Librarians and staffs of Khuda Bakhsh Oriental Library, Patna Museum, Patna and Bharat Kala Bhavan, Varanasi, who providing me the necessary documents and resource materials. I am thankful to Mr. Nijoy Kumar Paul and non teaching staffs of Rabindra Library, Assam University for their support.

I am also thankful to my friends and all the staffs of the Department of Visual Arts for their necessary help and co-operation. I thank University Grant Commission for providing me financial support during my research journey.

I am deeply indebted to my parents Mr. Nilkanta Das and Mrs. Pratima Das, my eldest brother Prashanta Kumar Das, and other family members for their continuous help, support, encouragement and co-operation to bring this research work to the final stage.

Date  10·03·2014

Nibedita Das