ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I gratefully acknowledge the guidance, help and encouragement I received from persons and institutions.

I am immensely grateful to Dr. A.S. Dharanendriah, Reader and Chairman, Department of Post-graduate Studies in Psychology, Karnataka University, Dharwad, my Research Guide and Superior who has not only provided able guidance and valuable counsel but also took keen interest and rendered continuous timely help, throughout the course of my research work. He has allowed me to draw heavily on his precious time, experience and patience while I was engaged in this research work, for which I remain ever grateful to him. I am also indebted to Dr. N. Sundar Raj, Professor and Head of the Department of Statistics, and Director of Humanities and Basic Sciences, University of Agricultural Sciences, Hebbal, Bangalore, and Shri Arun Rao, Lecturer, Department of Statistics, University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad for their expert guidance in applying the statistical tests to the analysis of my data. They have been most encouraging all through and have spared me their precious time and extended the required help.

I place on record my special thanks to the University Grants Commission, authorities of the Karnataka University, for the scholarship and studentship respectively, and the Department of Post-graduate Studies in Psychology and the Karnataka University Library Staff for the facilities provided for conducting this Research work.
I am thankful to Shri J.C. Sharma, Head, Department of Statistics, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay, and Mr. P M. Salvi, E D.P Unit, TISS, Bombay, for all the help extended to me at the time of Data Analysis. Miss Alka Irani, was kind enough to help me with the programming, to whom I am grateful. I specially thank Mr Harihar, Computer Centre, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his help rendered at the time of scoring and processing of the data.

I am grateful to Mr. K P. Tuke, Draftsman, University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, for preparing the neat forms of the figures and to Mrs. Jaya Hegde, Mr. Girish Kulkarni, Mr. Pavate and Miss Z M Desur, for their painstaking in typing the pre-final and final draft of the thesis.

I am grateful to the school authorities and especially the students who responded to the test patiently and sincerely. I also thank Miss Vijayalaxmi A. Aminabhavi and Mr. Jadhav for their services rendered in preparing the Bibliography and processing of the data respectively.

In addition I owe a debt of gratitude to Vijaya Agency, who have spared no pains for the timely completion of the typing, xeroxing and binding of the thesis. Finally, I gratefully appreciate the constant support, encouragement and services extended by all my family members throughout the course of Research work. But for their sympathetic understanding and co-operation this work would have been a non-entity.

Place Dharwad
Date 29, December, 1987
Candidate

(JYOTI S. MADGAONKAR)