BIBLIOGRAPHY

Awasthi, R.C. 1981. Problems and prospect of tea industry in North-East India, Calcutta: Research India Publication.

Bangladesh Jadughar. 1400 B.C. Bangladesher upojatiya sanskriti, gtiya ao jibonjatra special. Exhibition.

BTRI. 2012. Gazette notification over categorization of garden. Sreemangal: BTRI

Basu, Bireswar. 1366 B. C. Cha-maty manoosh.

Bhattacharjee, Jayanta Bhushan. 1977. Cachar under British rule in North East India. New Delhi: Radiant Publisher.

Freeman,WERbane & Argyris.

Gain, Philip. 2010. ‘The story of tea workers’.

Gowala, Haren. 2008. ‘Labor relations practices in tea industry of Assam with special references to Jorhat district of Assam’.

Hasib, S.A. 1996. ‘A brief note on Bangladesh tea industry’, presented in a visit programme of ODA under Secretary, POTER on February 2.

338

ITC. 2011. Management patterns on improvement of production and productivity of North-East India.

Mahabir, K. A. 2013. Text speech of 112th annual general meeting, chairman, Svbita, Surma Valley Branch, Indian Tea Association, Silchar.

Saha, Chakradhari. 2010. Social and cultural change among the tea tribes of Barak Valley. Unpublished M.Phil. Dissertation, Department of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar, Assam.

Sircar, Lucille; Shamimul Islam and Phillip Gain. 2005. Policy critique, the case of tea workers in Bangladesh prepared for the project regional proposal for the right to sustainable livelihood and the enabling of social and political participation.

Websites

http://teaboard.gov.in.pdf
http://www.fmltea.com/Teainfo/tea-cultivation.htm
http://www.humanitarian-srilanka.org