Acknowledgement

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my gifted and exemplary guide - Dr. C.G. Pattanshetti, Senior Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Karnataka University, Dharwad, but for whose painstaking guidance with deeper insights into the problems of agricultural marketing in different areas in the division, it would have been just an impossible task to complete.

I express my sincere thanks to the authorities of the Marketing Department, Government of Karnataka, the Marketing Board and the Secretaries of the A.P.M.Cs in the division for their cooperation and help in collecting the data.

I thank the authorities of the Karnataka University, Dharwad for all the help and assistance given to me from time to time and the Librarian, for reference facilities.

I thank the Vice-Chancellor and the Head, Department of Commerce, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga, for their encouragement and help rendered in completing the work by granting study leave to complete the research work.

Besides the above, there are a host of my friends who helped me with their valuable assistance either in the collection of data, or published material or accommodation, preparation of charts etc. to whom I am indebted. I will be failing in my duty if I do not thank my family members who had to bear the brunt of extreme inconveniences during the engagement in the research.
