Acknowledgement

I would like to place on record my deep sense of gratitude and appreciation to Dr. C.R. Karisiddappa, Professor and Chairman, Department of Library & Information Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, an indisputable scholar of repute, who had kindly consented to be my research guide. His in-depth scholarship to analyse the various issues of the research topic used to come to the fore during our long discussions. This has helped to sharpen my approach and analysis of the subject in the most effective way throughout this investigation.

My grateful thanks to Dr. M.A. Gopinath, Professor and Head, Documentation Research and Training Centre (DRTC), Bangalore, a celebrated expert in the field of Library and Information Science, for his critical evaluation and valuable suggestions at every stage of this study.

To late Professor T.K.S. Iyengar, formal Librarian, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, my professional mentor who influenced me greatly by his scholarship and administrative acumen to embrace this profession and inspired me to do something useful to the world of users who are in constant pursuit of knowledge.

I am grateful to Dr. V.G. Talwar, Professor of Library & Information Science, Mysore University and Director, Academic Staff College, Mysore University, for the initial discussions which gave focus to the topic, and his keen interest during the course of this investigation.

Dr. N.B. Pangannaya, Professor, Department of Library & Information Science, Mysore University, for helping me register for the PhD programme with Professor C.R. Karisiddappa, and his continuous and active support.

Dr. C.P. Ramasesh, Senior Assistant Librarian, Mysore University Library, for his assistance in the design of primary data collection instrument, to have brought to my attention various reference sources and resources related to the topic and discussions thereof, also for his help in the collection of the primary data.

Shri. Ramesh Gandhi, Deputy Librarian, Mysore University Library, and Shri. M. Puttannaya, Senior Librarian, Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering, Mysore, for their help in the data collection process.

Shri. S.N. Lakshminarayan, Documentation Cum Reference Officer, Shri. V. Subbiah, Office superintendent and other senior colleagues for their help in all possible ways.
Shri. Harinarayana, Research Scholar, Dept of Library Science and Smt. Nanda Devi, Library apprentice, who gave their time and efforts to get the biblio-search from respective CD-ROM files.

The state government officials at, District Statistical Centre, District Industrial Centre, Zilla Parishat, Block Development Officers at Mysore and other Taluks, and a score of co-ordinators who head the Non-Government Organisations and Voluntary Organisations located in various parts of the Mysore and Mysore District for personal discussions and for supplying the primary data.

The officials of the Central Government organisations at Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI), Central Sericulture Research and Training Institute (CSRTI), All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysore for their assistance in the course of the investigation.

The authorities of the Mysore University for having permitted me to work as an external candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at Karnatak University.

The individuals who have returned the instrument of information collection (Questionnaire) - for their interest and time.

Brother-in-law Shri. V. Madhava Rao, and my maternal Grandmother, but for whose influence I would never have entered this profession.

To M. Diviaraj Kumar, Bangalore, S. Srikanta (ECIL, Bangalore), My brothers H. R. Seshadri, H. R. Raghu, H. R. Srinivas, Smt. Usha Srinivas, kids Sowmya & Sacchu, for their immeasurable help in the production of this work, and to other family members for their keen interest and moral support.

Last but not the least, to my dear wife Indira, and children Roopa and Anand for putting up with the inevitable inconvenience with a smile throughout the course of this investigation.

Dharwad,
21 June 1994

H R Achyutha Rao