During the course of my research work I have been helped in many respects by many persons and agencies. Among those I am deeply indebted to:

Dr. K.G. Gurumurthy, Reader, Department of Anthropology, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for accepting me as his research student, suggesting me this interesting topic and later for guiding me at all stages of my research work.

His Holiness Sri Shiva Kumara-Shivacharya Mahaswamiji, Dr. Taralabalu Shivamurthy, Panditharadhy Mahaswamiji, Mallikarjuna Mahaswamiji, Sri Mallasiah of Sirigere Bruhanratta, for their encouragement and blessings.

Administrative Officer, Central and Local Committee members, Principal, staff and students of U.M. College of Education, Davangere, for their valuable cooperation and encouragement.

Headmasters, Headmistress, staff, students of all high schools in Chitradorga district, office of D.D.P.I. and District Statistical Office for their cooperation in providing data.

The village leaders, villagers, informants, headmaster, staff and students of Amberu Kancheppa High School, Basavapura, Davangere taluk for their valuable cooperation and help in doing the field work.
The staff and Research students of the Department of Anthropology, Karnatak University, Dharwad for their help and encouragement during my research work.

The Librarian and his staff, Karnatak University Library, Dharwad for providing me all the library facilities.

My mother, relatives and friends who encouraged me throughout my study.
