ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work on the "Impact of Economic Development on Political Participation: A Comparative Study of Wet and Dry Areas in Hukeri Taluka" is the result of an extensive study of the masses, leaders and public institutions of Hukeri taluka, and of published and unpublished literature on the subject, personal interviews and observations.

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all the institutions and individuals who enabled me to undertake this study and complete it. It gives me pleasure to mention each one of them with affection.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitudes and indebtedness to Dr. S.H. Patil, Reader in Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his valuable guidance, help, and advice without which this study would not have been completed. Dr. Patil's instructive criticism and insightful suggestions have been my major guidelines in carrying out this research.

I wish to express my profound sense of gratitude to my parents without whose constant encouragement this thesis would not have been completed.
I am thankful to Dr. A.S. Kadi who, in the midst of other duties, found time to help me in the application of statistical tools for the study and to guide me in other statistical matters in the hour of my need.

I wish to thank the director I.C.S.S.R. New Delhi for permitting me to utilise their library facilities. My thanks are also due to the directors of Centre for the Study of Developing Societies, New Delhi, I.I.P.A. New Delhi, and librarians of J.N.U. New Delhi, Tata Institute of Social Sciences Bombay, J.N.Library of Bombay University, Bombay, I.S.E.C. Bangalore, and Karnatak University, Dharwad, for the unstinted co-operation and facilities accorded to me in collecting the necessary relevant material.

I am thankful to the Deputy Director of the District Statistical Office, Belgaum and his staff as well as Sri. M.R. Hiremath, Tahsildar of Hukeri and his staff and all other taluka level officers of different departments serving at Hukeri and their staff, for furnishing relevant statistical data for this study.

I record my gratitude to principal S.J. Gurav and my colleagues for their most understanding and generous encouragement.
I am thankful to the then chairman Sri.C.S.Tubach, vice chairman, late Sri.V.B.Nooli, the present chairman Sri.R.S.Shetti and other members of the board of directors of N.E.S.Society, Huikeri for their generous encouragement to take up this work and complete it.

I thank Dr.C.Venugopal, professor of English, for going through the manuscript and offering helpful comments and suggestions.

I am thankful to my respondents, especially the masses and leaders, for sparing their time and furnishing useful responses to the questionnaires issued by me. I am thankful to the proprietors, GPD Computer Services Belgaum, for their help in the tabulation work.

I am grateful to my friends and well wishers, particularly Prof.G.S.Wali, Prof.H.S.G.B.Goudar, Prof.D.R.Aihal, Dr.H.K.Pawar, Sri.R.M.Naik, Dr.S.S.Patagundi, Dr.A.T.Kirtur, Sri.V.K.Huddar, Sri.M.G.Sambal (Statistical Inspector) Prof.V.N.Huddar.

Several scholars of many universities and institutions, my friends and well wishers who are not mentioned here for want of space have taken keen interest in my research work. Their encouragement and suggestions have been a source of strength. I am thankful to all of them.
