ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with great pleasure, that I present this thesis. I am immensely indebted to Shri G.B. Mench, Reader (Retd.), Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad, my guide for his constant encouragement, valuable suggestions and inspiring and untiring guidance in the successful completion of this work.

Dr. Balasubramanian, Professor and Head, Department of Education, University of Madras, deserves the fondest and heartful gratitudes for providing me the right perspective and the blueprint of this study. I express my feelings of profound thankfulness to him. But for his ablest direction, every step of the way, the present work would not have been possible.

I thank Dr. K. Ramachandrachar, Head, Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad, Dr. Shashikala Deshpande, Reader and Dr. Nurjahan Ganihar, Lecturer of the same department for helping me in the construction of the tool and analysis of data.

I thank Dr. T. N. S. Bhatnagar, Research Associate, N.C.E.R.T., New Delhi, for providing necessary materials for the construction of tools. Dr. P.C. Aradhya, Reader, University College of Education, Dharwad, helped me in the collection of data, my thanks are also due to him.

My warm greatfulness and admirations go to the Principals of the Colleges of Education, teacher educators and Headmasters/Headmistresses of the secondary schools from where I have collected data for this investigation. I thank my beloved husband Shri B.D. Patted, Manager, E.S.I. Corporation, Dharwad for his encouragement to complete this work successfully. I thank my B.Ed. students 1987-1988 academic year, for helping me in the collection of data. Finally I wish to put on record a deep sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me in one or the other way, but for them this study would not have been a reality.
