

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The author of this thesis places on record his deep indebtedness and grateful thanks to Dr.A.M.Rajasekhariah, Dr.Babasaheb Ambedkar Professor of Political Science and Head of the Department, Karnatak University, Dharwad for his ready consent to take me as a research scholar under his able and eminent guidance. It is a wellknown fact that my guide is an erudite scholar and in due recognition of his work in interpreting the thoughts and life of Dr.Ambedkar, he is the first ever Professor to adorn the Dr.Babasaheb Ambedkar Memorial Chair in the Karnatak University in order to perpetuate not only the services and eminence of Dr.B.R.Ambedkar but as well to suggest plans for the emancipation of the Depressed Classes. The Scholar is grateful to him for having asked me to do research on the subject of this thesis which is dear to him and to me.

He is also equally thankful to late Mr.J.Sivashannugam Pillai former speaker of Legislative Assembly, Madras and late Mr.Āryasañkāran a renowned Depressed Class leader of Madras, for their valuable collected papers.

Finally, he wishes to express his indebtedness to the authorities of Tamil Nadu Archives, Madras, Karnataka State Archives, Vidhana Soudha, Bangalore, Kerala University and Public Libraries of Trivandrum, National Archives, New Delhi and the Libraries of the Madras University, the Madras Legislature, the Madras Secretariat, the Connemara Public Library and the Karnataka University Library, Dharwad for their consistent and kind help. I thank Shri G.S. Byadgi for typing the thesis neatly.
