ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The thesis owes a great deal to my teacher and research guide, Dr. H.R. Raghunath Bhat, Reader, Department of Ancient Indian History and Epigraphy, Karnatak University, Dharwad, under whose constant inspiration, guidance and encouragement I could complete this work. With sustained interest, critical observation and forbearance his advice and suggestions were of immense value to me at every stage, from the selection of the subject till the completion of the work. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to him for all his help, guidance and encouragement.

I thank Dr. A. Sundara, Professor and Head, Department of Ancient Indian History and Epigraphy, Karnatak University, Dharwad for his encouragement and guidance.

I express my gratitude to the Director, NCERT, New Delhi for sanctioning the study leave for two years to pursue my higher studies leading to Ph.D. I acknowledge the encouragement extended to me by the then Principal, Dr. A.N. Maheshvari and Dean of Instructions Dr. C. Sheshadri, Head Master C.G. Nagaraj, Regional College of Education, Mysore.

I thank the authorities of the U.G.C. for providing contingency grants which enabled me to do the preliminary work.

I thank the heads of the following institutions:

i) Archaeological Survey of India, Bangalore Circle, Bangalore, Karnataka for their kind permission to take the interior views of the temples during my field work.

ii) Directorate of Archaeology and Museum, Mysore Karnataka for their kind permission to take the photo at Shimoga Museum and also for providing the library facilities for my reference work.

iii) Director of Epigraphy, Archaeological Survey of India, Mysore for providing the library facilities for my research work.

I thank the librarian and staff of the following institutions:

i) The Oriental Research Institute, Mysore.

ii) The Mythic Society, Bangalore.
iii) Mysore University and Karnataka University.

I thank Mr. Chandrashekharan Nair, Special Deputy Tahasildar, Taluk Office, Kasaragod for providing the plan of the Bekal fort.

I sincerely thank Dr. S.R. Rao, Chairman, Keladi Museum and Historical Research Bureau, Keladi for the permission to study the palm leaf manuscripts in the Keladi Museum. I also thank Dr. K.G. Venkatesh, Curator and Sri Kallapur, Assistant Curator, Keladi Museum for their kind co-operation.

I acknowledge with gratitude the help, guidance and co-operation rendered by Sri Keladi Gunda Jois during my course of study. I am highly grateful to him for his encouragement and guidance. My thanks are due to Dr. N. Radhakrishna Bhat, Department of Sanskrit, I.C.C. & C.E., Manasagangothri, Mysore. I sincerely thank Dr. Bhat Soori, Epigraphist, Dept. of Archaeology and Museums, Mysore, for his suggestions.

I place on record my indebtedness to the temple authorities, executive officers and priests in the districts of Shimoga, Dakshina Kannada and Uttara Kannada, for their permission to study the architectural details of those temples during my field work. My thanks are due to Sriyuts Subba Bhat, Ikkeri, Suryanarayana Bhat, Mrigavache, Gurunath Bhat, Soraba, Upendracharya, Gangolli, Tippayya Harikar, Basrur, Vishveshvarayya, Halsanad and Swamijis of Rajaguru Hire Matha, Keladi, Nilakanteshvara temple, Gurupura. I also thank the Executive Officer, Mukambika temple, Kollur.

I express my gratitude to the following persons who have helped me in my field work: Sriyuts - Gopala-krishna Udupa, and Sadashiva Salur, Tirthahalli; Rama Jois, Kauledurga; Sitarama Udupa and Subrahmanya Udupa, Nagara; Dr. K.G. Vasantha Madhava, Mulki; N. Seshagiri Rao, Kundapur; T.S. Shastri, Honnavar; N. Subba Rao, Kumata; U.S. Ramakrishna, Mastikatte; B.S. Anjaji Rao, Shimoga; P. Gopinath Rao, Kasaragod; P.G. Parameshvara Bhatta, Manipal.

My sincere thanks are due to my husband Sri H. Ganesh Aithala, Department of Translation and Text Book Bureau, I.K.S., Manasagangotri, Mysore, for his constant encouragement and co-operation without which this work would not have been completed. I deeply acknowledge his help. My thanks are due to my children Ashwini and Ravishankar who have helped me in preparing the plates. My thanks are also due to my mother Smt. Mahalakshamma and sisters Sharada S. Rao and Shanthala Ramakrishna who always encouraged me to pursue my higher studies.
I sincerely thank my friends Smt. Shamala, S.K., Smt. Prema, R. and Smt. Asha Kamath who have assisted me in the preparation of this thesis.

I thank Sri Anand, Meena Studio for printing the photo. I also thank Sri P. Natarajan for his typing work.

I also thank R.V. Srinivasa Murthy and R.S. Mohan of Shakti Press for printing the cover page.