ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It has been my fortune to have been associated with Dr. V.G. Tulasigeri, as my research guide and supervisor during the course of study. He has been a continuous source and spirit of inspiration in the problem concerned and but for this, the present thesis would never have been possible. Hence, it is my bounden duty to offer my gratefulness to him for having taken deep interest in this great pursuit of my present investigations. I am also thankful to Smt. Ramadevi V. Tulasigeri for her good wishes in framing the present thesis.

I owe my special debt to Prof. V.M. Korwar, retired Professor of Physics for his enlightenment and blessings.

I am very much indebted to Prof. D.C. Patil, the Chairman of the Department of Physics, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for providing me all the facilities during the course of research work.

I am very much thankful to Prof. R.L. Patil, Prof. D.K. Deshpande and Prof. M.A. Shashidhar for their indispensable encouragement and fruitful discussions on the academic fronts.

I sincerely acknowledge Prof. B.R. Havinale and Prof. L.D. Basangoudar, former Chairmen, Prof. M.L. Budni, Dr. J.A. Jahagirdar, Dr. K.B. Gudasi, Dr. S.D. Dhumwad and Mr. K.Y. Anklekar, Department of Chemistry, Karnatak University, Dharwad, Dr. S.A. Patil, Reader in Chemistry, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga, for their constant help, valuable suggestions by extending the laboratory facilities in this enterprise.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. S.C. Mehrotra, Reader in Physics, Dr. B.A. Marathwada University, Aurangabad who could keep the laboratory open and help me by providing TDR equipment. My thanks are also due to Dr. P.B. Patil, Dr. Raju, Dr. S.H. Behre and Mr. Milind Lokhande, Department of Physics and
Dr. B. A. Arbad, Department of Chemistry, for their kind treatment during my stay at Aurangabad.

It is my pleasure to acknowledge, the U.G.C. New Delhi for the award of fellowship, the authorities of B.L.D.E. Association, Bijapur, for their help extended to me to continue my higher studies.

I express my thanks to our former principal Prof. B. B. Bannur, and the present principal Prof. K. B. Patil, S. B. Arts and K. C. P. Science College, Bijapur, my colleagues and the staff of my college for their kind cooperation throughout the period.

Author wishes to acknowledge the debt to the principal and staff of B.L.D.E.A’s Arts & Science College, Jamkhandi for their help and cooperation. I am also thankful to Prof. S. H. Lagali, Prof. P. B. Patil and Shri. S. T. Maigur for their encouragement.

Thanks are also due to the authorities of Karnataka University, Dharwad, for having provided me all the facilities during the course work.

I am also thankful to Dr. M. S. Bidarkundi, IIT Bombay, Prof. S. Mohan, Raman School of Physics, Pondicherry University, and the Heads of RSIC’s IIT Bombay and Madras, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and NCL Poona for their timely assistance.

I wish to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to all teachers, who inspired me to climb up the ladder of higher education in my career. Thanks are also due to my friends Shri. S. B. Pattadkal, Shri. M. S. Yadave, Shri. S. R. Magadum and Shri. S. K. Hegde for their help.

At this juncture, I gratefully acknowledge the moral support and the help extended by my senior and contemporary research colleagues in the Department of Physics, Karnataka University, Dharwad.
I remember with gratitude the blessings of my parents, Smt. Saraswati and Shri. Chidanand, who have been a constant life-stream of energy in contributing a little to the development of science. My brothers Basawaraj, Chandrashekhar, Mahesh, Umesh and sisters Sarojini, Shashikala, Sujata, and cousins Gangadhar, Gourabai, Bhageerathi, Laxmi and the other family members were the constant source of inspiration in this great undertaking.

I will be failing in my duties if I do not remember the encouragement, love and affection extended by Smt. Laxmi V. Pathak and Shri. Vasantrao E. Pathak who are my in-law and Shri. Iranna K. Pattar, my maternal uncle and Smt. Sarojini V. Pattar and Shri. Vishwanath K. Pattar and their family members in completing the present task.

My special thanks are due to Mr. Suryanarayana M. for his constant cooperation. I also extend my thanks to Smt. and Shri. B.H. Belaldavar for their homely affection during our stay at Dharwad.

A lot of credit goes to Smt. Rajeshwari, my wife, who is sharing my dreams, difficulties, love and life itself, for her sacrifice and patience in carrying and bringing out the present voluminous pages of thesis.
