Acknowledgement

It is a great pleasure for me to place on record my indebtedness to various individuals and institutions from whom I have derived help in pursuing and completing this thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to my research guide Dr. Anil Mudhidri, Professor, Department of Post-Graduate studies in Sociology, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for his valuable guidance throughout the course of my doctoral study. This research could not have been completed without his excellent advice and sincere criticism at every stage of my doctoral study. I express my deep sense of gratitude, reverence and thankfulness to him.

I am grateful to Dr. Amati, the then chairman of the Department of Sociology and Mr. Kaniram, the then Registrar of the University for their help. I also thank all the faculty members of the Department of Sociology.

I am also thankful to Dr. A.S. Seetharamu, Professor and Head, Dept. of Education, ISEC, Bangalore and Dr. (Mrs) Noorjehan Ganihar, Senior lecturer, College of Education, Dharwad for helping me in the selection of an appropriate theory in this study.

I am extremely thankful to the library staff and librarians of Karnatak University Dharwad, Institute For Social and Economic Change, Bangalore, Indian Institute of Education, Pune and Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay for the co-operation they extended during reference work.

I also express my thanks to all the staff members of the Directorate of Adult Education, Dharwad. My sincere thanks to Mr. Subhas Morab, Branch Manager Family Planning Association of India, Dharwad and Mr. Subhas Kulkarni, Population Education officer and staff of FPAI for allowing me to participate in the special health campaigns organised as a part of the Post literacy campaign programme jointly by the Adult education office and FPAI, Dharwad.

I am grateful to all my respondents who are the main source of the primary data collected by me. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Smt Mugali and Smt. Aralimarad of Kotur, Smt. Neelamma Ramannavar and Smt Shantha Ganadavar of Narendra and Kumari Madevi Nilkantappa, Kumari Neelamma Thimmappa and Kumari Banashankari Pattar who showed keen interest and acted as a link with the researcher and the respondents, thereby making data collection possible.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not thank Shri R.L.Patil, Research Officer (Rtd.), Institute of Economic Research, Dharwad who helped me immensely in framing the Interview schedules.

I am specially thankful to TISS, Bombay for providing me the ICSSR consultancy and guidance services during my research study. I also thank ICSSR for providing me financial assistance for computer processing and analysis of data. My sincere thanks to professor R.D.Naik, Head, Dept., of Research Methodology, TISS Bombay for his expert opinion and advice on the preparation of the tools i.e. Interview schedules. My humble thanks to Dr. D.P.Singh, Reader, Dept., of Research Methodology TISS, Bombay for his guidance with regard to the statistical techniques to be used in the study. I do not have sufficient words to express my deep gratitude to Professor P.M.Salvi, In-charge, EDP Department, TISS Bombay for providing me with all the facilities for data analysis and for making my stay comfortable at TISS, Bombay. My thanks to Mrs. Sherely Phillips, System Analyst, TISS, Bombay for her warm company and advice.
I also express my gratitude and thanks to Mr. A.R.S Bhat of UAS, Dharwad, Professor (Mrs.) Vimala Patil (Rtd.) and Dr. Muddapur, Professor of Statistics, Karnataka University for helping me in interpreting the results.

My sincere and affectionate thanks to Dr. N.C.Vijayaraj and Mrs. Shakuntala for their everlasting encouragement.

My thanks to the Raos, Prabhakars, Naiks and Khans for always supporting me and giving encouragement.

I also take pleasure in thanking Vijaya, Renuka, Veena, Jayashree, Rita, Rogi, Natekar and others for their company in the campus. I remember Smt. S.Saroja of IIPA, New Delhi who was a source of inspiration for me to take up Ph.D work.

Last but not the least, I thank my husband Dr. Vijayakumar who has been an eternal source of inspiration and encouragement. My gratitude to my children Deepthi and Neethi, who understood the situation too well and silently co-operated. But for their understanding and co-operation, this work would not have been successful. I also thank my father who stood by odds silently.

Finally, I thank Yogish and Mr. S.S.Patil for the computer typing.

Place : Dharwad.

Date : 12-9-1997

[REKHA V. KUMAR.]