ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to place on record the names of all the well-wishers who have extended their help to me in completing this thesis. It gives me great pleasure to express my profound sense of gratitude and respect to my esteemed Guide Dr. P. S. Halyal, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Psychology, Karnatak University, Dharwad. I am grateful to him for his kind encouragement, inspiring guidance and keen interest in my research work. It is indeed a great privilege to have been his student.

I am immensely thankful to the Karnatak University authorities for granting me the permission to carry out the research work.

I am glad to acknowledge the help of Dr. S. T. Kallapur, who read the earlier draft and made many useful suggestions. I am thankful to Dr. M. V. Muddapur, for his help in the statistical analysis of the data.

I acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude my heartfelt thanks to Smt. and Shree H.K. Patil and Smt. and Shree M.V. Hooli for their encouragement and support given to me.

I am extremely thankful to Smt. and Shree H.G. Rangaraddi and Venkatesh H. Rangaraddi for their kind co-operation and hospitality during my stay at Hubli.
I thank all the subjects for their active co-operation and participation in the present study.

I thank Ms. Uma Sambrani for her help in proof reading the manuscript of this thesis.

I express my deep and profound gratitude to my parents-in-law Smt. and Shree G.B.Shalawadi and my husband Dr.B.G.Shalawadi for their moral support and motivation in the pursuit of this endavour.

I am thankful to my son Sujay for bravely bearing up with my long absence and for his full co-operation during all the stages of this research.
