I completed my M.Phil. degree in 1997, in which I had collected information, regarding changing status of scheduled tribe students as a result of higher education. This study was confined only to Karnata University. Further I wanted to study this aspect in entire Karnata state, which very much influenced me to pursue this topic for my doctoral degree. Today It gives me immense pleasure to submit my thesis on changing status of scheduled tribe post-graduate students, based on sociological perspective.

With profound sense of gratitude and ever lasting indebtedness, I offer my sincere thanks to my esteemed guide Dr. U.A. Attar, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Sociology, Karnata University, Dharwad, for his most valuable guidance and encouragement throughout the period of my research work. Without his co-operation and suggestion this work could not have been completed.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to my teachers Dr. A.E. Punit, Registrar (Rtd), K.U. Dharwad, Dr. A.G. Mudbidri, Professor (Rtd.), K.U. Dharwad and Dr. (Smt) S.C. Sidramshettar, Reader, K.U.
