

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I deem it as a great pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. H. M. Kashinath, Professor and Dean Faculty in Education, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad for permitting me to undertake this study.

I am immensely indebted to my guide Dr. Shahapur Nagappa Panchalingappa, Reader in Education, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad for all the encouragement, valuable suggestions inspiring and untiring guidance that have been responsible for the successful accomplishment of this research work and above all his efforts in making me a self-reliant researcher.

At the outset, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. (Smt.) N. N. Ganihar, Professor and Chairperson, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad for her valuable suggestions and guidance.

My heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Chandulal Dubey, formerly Head of Post-Graduate Department of Education, Dakshina Bharat Hindi Prachar Sabha and Dr. G. M. Patted former Chairman, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad for guiding and giving useful suggestions throughout my research work.

My warm gratefulness and administration go to the principals and student-teachers of Dharwad, Belgaum, Bijapur, Bangalore and Mysore Colleges of education in Karnataka state affiliated to Dakshina Bharat Hindi Prachar Sabha from where I collected data for investigation. I affectionately wish to acknowledge the timely assistance and cooperation I received from them.

Finally but not the least I am ever grateful to my husband Sri. Laxmikant V. Prabhu, daughters Smt. Keerti Pai and Kiran Prabhu and due thanks to my son-in-law Sri. K. Shashidhar Pai for taking pains and inspiring me throughout the endeavour.

Lastly I express my thanks to Basavanna Graphics who have helped me to complete this thesis work cleanly and neatly.

Place: Dharwad - 580 001.
Date: 10th February 2006

(Smt. CHITRA VASUDEV NAYAK)