ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. N. B. Mallur, Reader in Inorganic Chemistry, Department of Post Graduate Studies in Chemistry, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for his indefatigable guidance and encouragement throughout the tenure of my research work. I am greatly indebted to him for his kindness and sympathetic understanding which helped me immensely in my task. He was not merely a guide, but a philosopher and a friend too and that, I believe to be the true spirit.

My sincere thanks are due to the Chairman, Department of Post Graduate Studies in Chemistry, Karnatak University, for providing me laboratory facilities to carryout the present investigations in the Department.

I am extremely greatful to the Principal Mr. J. S. Kuri, Kittel Science College, Dharwad and the Board of Management for extending their kind permission to undertake this research work.

I also express my gratitude to Dr. C. S. Narke, Professor of Inorganic Chemistry (retd.), who helped me in my endeavour by discussion, suggestions and encouragement.

I express my profound indebtedness to Dr. R. N. Bhandiwad, for being a source of inspiration in my life. He enlightened me on the theme of present research work.
I am extremely thankful to the authorities of University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for awarding me the teacher fellowship under FIP for completion of this work.

I record my appreciation and greatfulness to my research colleagues Mr. V. M. Nayak, Mr. Vasudev Naik and Mr. G. T. Kuchinad for their timely help.

My special thanks are due to Mr. James R. M., Mr. Narayan H. K. and Mr. G. Stalin for their painstaking effort in typing the thesis neatly.

I wish to express my thanks to Dr. S. H. Neglur, Dr. J. M. Bellary, Dr. J. J. Jogul, Dr. Shantha Mallur and all my colleagues for extending all possible help in my research work.

I wish to record my personnel acknowledgement of gratitude to Bro. Michael Achary and Bro. Y. Paul Dinkar, for their prayers and encouragement in persuing this study.

From the bottom of my heart I express my gratitude to my God-Parents Late Mr. Ernst Markert and Mrs. Annemarie Markert for their kind help and sacrifice in climbing the steps of education.

I would like to acknowledge the constant support and encouragement from my family, in particular my father Isaiah, my mother Mary, my wife Kalavathi and my children Annie Evangeline and Ernst, without whose patience and understanding this work would not have been possible.

The encouragement, blessings and sacrifice made by my sisters Shiromani, Lilly, Mariamma, Lalitha Kumary and my father-in-law shri. V. Jaya Prasad is acknowledged with deep sense of gratitude.
I would never forget the help and encouragement made by my uncles Shri. Ruben M, Shri. Lukas M and Shri. Samuel M to support my education is acknowledged with the sense of gratitude.

My heartfelt thanks are due to Smt. Dakshayini N. Mallur, whose kindness and motherly affection inspired me to complete my thesis.

Finally, I wish to thank all my relatives and my well wishers who have helped me directly or indirectly to complete this thesis.

Lazarus I. Darla
