ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to acknowledge the help extended to me by a number of personalities in carrying out and completing the present study.

With a deep sense of gratitude and ever lasting indebtedness, I wish to express my deepest appreciation to my esteemed research guide Dr. U.A. Attar, Professor and Chairman, Department of studies in Sociology, Karnataka University, Dharwad, whose motivational thoughts, valuable guidance, perfectly executed efforts and constant encouragement enabled me to complete the present work.

I place on record my sincere thanks to the Karnataka University, Dharwad, for permitting me to prepare and submit thesis.

I find no words to express my innermost sense of gratitude to my honourable teacher Prof. L.S. Ainapur and Dr. (Mrs) Vinoda L. Ainapur who used to spent their most precious time for me and have taken more pain in order to enrich me by his valuable suggestions, constant encouragement and constructive criticisms throughout the period of this study.

It is pleasure to express my profound and sincere thanks to Dr. C. R. Karisiddappa, Professor, Department of Library and information science, Dr. Hussain Khan, Professor, Department of Anthropology, Dr. Shoukath Azeem, Reader, Department of Sociology, Dr. Ashraf Hussain, Professor, Department of Urdu, Professor Madankar Rajukumar, Professor Sreepad Bolashetty, Karnataka University Dharwad, Dr. M.S.
