ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe, immense and long standing debt of gratitude to Dr. K. S. Daniel, Professor and Chairman of Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Commerce, Karnatak University, Dharwad, under whose valuable guidance and advise and with unstinted support and enthusiastic encouragement, this study has been successfully completed.

I express my profound gratitude to Dr. B. M. Wali and Prof. C. M. Kotturshetti of Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Commerce, Karnatak University Dharwad and Prof. S. N. Bhat, Head of the Department of Commerce, J. S. S. College, Dharwad for offering highly constructive suggestions and support all along.

The accomplishment of this task would have been difficult, had not, the Management of Grasim Industries Limited permitted me to take up this research study. I sincerely thank the Management for this privilege.

I am grateful to the Managements of, (1) Davangere Cotton Mills Ltd., (2) Sree Siddeswara Textile Mills (P) Ltd., (3) Sree Yallamma Cotton, Woollen & Silk Mills (Unit of N.T.C) (4) Sree Ganesar Textile Mills Ltd., (5) Sree Chandrodaya Mills Ltd., and (6) Sri Anjaneya Cotton Mills Private Ltd., for permitting me to conduct field work in their respective mills and providing me all necessary infrastructural support and available information to complete this study. I am also grateful to all the employees of these mills for their response to my questionnaire and investigations.

With sincere thanks, specific mention must be made for the contributions of four prominent Trade Union Leaders, (1) Shri V.J.K. Nair, General Secretary, Karnataka State Committee, Centre of Indian Trade Unions (CITU), (2) Shri Pampapathi, All India Trade Union Congress (AITUC) & former MLA, (3) Shri D.K. Sadashiva, General Secretary, Bharatiya Mazdoor Sangh (BMS) Karnataka State and (4) Shri K. Thimappa, President, Bharathiya Mazdoor Sangh (BMS), Chitradurga District, who generously agreed to be interviewed during my field investigation and supplemented purposeful data on the subject.

My sincere thanks are due to Shri C. Valliappa, Chairman, Karnataka Textile Mills Association who has given value-adding suggestions.

I feel quite stimulated thanking Shri A.S. Veeranna, Chartered Accountant, Davangere and Shri Datt Kurdi, Dharwad, who cheerfully provided all-round support.

I thank my colleagues, friends and well wishers who with a sense of dedication stood with me and inspired me in the stupendous task of completing this thesis on time.
