ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The work has providential significance and it could not have been what it is today but for the unstinted and inspiring guidance of Dr. S. R. Narappanar, Professor, Department of Studies in Economics, Karnataka University, Dharwad. I am indeed highly grateful to him.

It is my proud privilege to offer my sincere and devoted gratitude to Dr. G. T. Marulasiddappa, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Economics, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta, for providing me with the necessary help and kind patronage in completing this work.

I am thankful to the Chairman and all the Faculty members of the Department of Studies in Economics, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their encouragement and help extended to me during my research work.

I thankfully acknowledge the encouragement given by Dr. C. K. Renukarya, Professor of Economics, University of Mysore, and Dr. T. K. Meti of Karnataka University, Dharwad.

I endeavour to articulate my venerable gratitude towards Dr. T. R. Manjunath, Reader, Department of Studies in Economics, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta for his inspiring encouragement and valuable suggestions offered during the course of investigation of the present study.
I am grateful to the Librarians of Karnatak University and University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore, Centre for Development Studies, Trivendrum, Central Plantation Crops Research Institute, Kasaragod, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta, who have extended their kind co-operation during my visits to these institutions. I am also indebted to their staff for their timely help.

I thank all the office bearers of the Directororate of Economics and Statistics, Coconut Development Board, Directorate of Agricultural Marketing Bangalore, and District Statistical Office, Tumkur for providing me with the required data.

I am deeply grateful to the farmers who tumultuously received and encouraged me by providing necessary data. I wish to thank Shri. Gopal Rao, Shri. Mallikarjunaiyah, Shri. Murigendrappa, Shri. Nanjegouda and all those who have helped me in several ways.

I am indebted for the opportune help of the personnel of the Central Plantation Crops Research Institute, Kasaragod, Kerala. I also wish to express my gratitude to Dr. A. R. S. Menon and Dr. Sai Ram for their help.

I am thankful to my friend T. V. Suresh, Sub Inspector, Hirekerur for his help and co-operation in my research study.
I am thankful to Mrs. M.V. Ghewari, Proprietor, Sai Computers for typing the thesis promptly, correctly and neatly. I am grateful to Shri M.I. Kumbar and his functionaries for xeroxing and binding work.

I find no words to express my gratitude to my parents and brothers for their continuous encouragement during this study.

I am specially indebted to my wife Smt. Mamatha, who has associated me in tabulating the data and encouraged me to complete the thesis at an early date. She has been an unfailing source of inspiration at every stage of my research work.
