ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present work deals with "The working of Jamkhandi Municipality - 1970-87."

The Jamkhandi town was formerly a princely state which was one of the first to merge with the Indian union in 1947, soon after India attained independence.

The present study throws light on politico-administrative changes which influenced the working of the Jamkhandi municipality.

I am deeply indebted to my guide, Dr. S.Y. Gubbanavar, Reader in Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, without whose guidance and constant encouragement this thesis would not have been complete.

At the same time, it is my duty to express my thanks to Dr. R.I. Jangan, Professor and Chairman of Department of Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his valuable encouragement and suggestions.

I express my sincere thanks to Shrimant Pramayakumar Patwardhan, son of the last ruler of Jamkhandi. His Highness was kind enough to make the treasured information available to me.

My special thanks are due to Shri M.S. Chate, the Chief Officer, Jamkhandi Municipality, and his staff, for allowing me to go through all the relevant municipal records and Annual Reports.

A number of persons from different walks of life, like scholars, professionals, government officials, MLAs, past and present presidents and councillors have been consulted; I am thankful to them all.

I also thank the following persons who were of immense help in accomplishing this work.

1. Shriyute T.M. Deshpande Advocate
2. " S.S. Lad Advocate
3. " R.M. Kaluti MLA
4. " Dilip Shinde Merchant
5. " P.S. Lale Ex-Serviceman
6. " S.H. Mali President, Jamkhandi Municipality

for providing me with necessary books and other vital information.
I also thank my colleagues, of B.B.S. Arts and T.G.P. Science College, Jamkhani, for their constant encouragement for performing this task.

Footnotes have been few because most conclusions or inferences have been drawn on the basis of the Annual Administration Reports of the Jamkhani Municipality from 1970 to 1987, and the data collected by means of field-work and interviews etc.

"I bow my head in gratitude to Him who steered me through darkness."
