ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many people have extended help when I undertook this research work and I want to express my heartfelt thanks to them.

I should express my gratitude to my revered teacher Dr. D.N. Shanbhag. He was kind enough to initiate, guide and encourage me in this venture. Indeed, without his ‘abhaya’ I might not have been able to complete this thesis. Hence, I am indebted to him.

Dr. G.S. Shastry Kulve kindly gave me all the published and unpublished works of Daivarata. Only through him I was able to approach Shri Vedasrava Sharma, the grand-son of Daivarata and to come across the unpublished life-sketch of Daivarata. Therefore, it is my duty to express my gratitude to both Dr. G.S. Shastry and Shri Vedasrava Sharma sincerely.

Smt. Sudha Sharma, Smt. Vidya Bharatanahalli and Shri N. Manjunatha Bhat who are working in the editorial section of the Samyukta Karnataka, Hubli, have helped me when I was searching for the articles on Daivarata’s life and works published in some old editions of the ‘Samyukta Karnataka’ (Daily) and ‘Kasturi’ (Monthly). In this task, my nephew Shri Keshava M. Hegde Korse took much pain. I am thankful to all of them. My thanks are due to Dr. A.K. Shastri who helped me in getting the articles on Daivarata. I am thankful to all of my colleagues.

I am coming from a big family of four brothers and six sisters in all. I am very fortunate that I have the privilege of enjoying the warm love and affection of all of my brothers and sisters. As a matter of fact, they more than myself were eager in the completion of my Ph.D. thesis. In return, I can only express my sense of gratitude for their love and affection and also to my in-laws who are also affectionate and interested in my research work "may their tribe increase".

Thanks are also due to my nephews who have helped me all the while in discharging domestic duties without which I could not have concentrated on my research work. They are - Narasinha Murthy Asisar, G.V. Hegde Bisalkoppa, Bhaskar Hegde and Aravinda Hegde, Bappanalli, G.K. Hegde, Raghu 'Bhat' and Anant Bisalkoppa, Raghava Korse and also Kangod Paramu and others.

And another nephew of mine, Vidwan Narasinha Bhat helped me in understanding some problems related to the topics of my research work through informal discussions whenever I was in need of his help.

I am thankful to Shri V.S. Sonde, President, Modern Education Society, Prof N.G. Bhat, Principal, M.M. Arts & Science College, SIRSI for their encouragement.

I am thankful to my teachers Prof. R.V. Shastry, Prof. B.V.K. Tantri, Dr. G.N. Bhat. I am also thankful to my colleague-friend Dr. M.G. Hegde.

I am also thankful to Dr. M.B. Paraddi, Dr. (Miss) N.V. Koppal, Dr. M.N. Joshi, Vidwan Malagi Jayateerthacharya and Dr. K.B. Archak, of the Dept. of Sanskrit, Karnataka University, Dharwad.

I am thankful to Shri. R.T. Bhat, Shashidhar Narendra for their friendly gesture towards me and to my research work also.

I am thankful to R.K. Hegde for his efforts which has made this thesis a neat and unique one. My thanks are due to Sudhir Thite, Chetan Desai and Devali family also.
I am thankful to my wife Vijaya; because, "there is always a woman behind a man's achievement". My son Vinayak and daughter Vindhya do also deserve compliments for not disturbing me during my studies.

I pray God that all help and encouragement which I have received until now may continue hereafter also pushing me forward and raising me upwords in my academic and research activities.

(G.N.Bhat)
