I wish to thank the following persons for their contribution to the successful completion of the thesis.

1. Prof K Raghavendra Rao, M.A., Diploma in Anthropology, Ph.D., my guide, for guiding, inspiring, encouraging and supporting me to complete this stupendous task.

2. Prof A.M.Rajashekariah, former Professor of Dr Ambedkar Chair of Political Science for his constant encouragement and guidance.

3. Dr N.A.Patil, Chairman, Department of Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, Dr R.T.Janga, Professor of Political Science and other members of the Teaching faculty of the Department for their help.

4. Sri R.C.Patil, Librarian, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his cooperation.

5. Sri Santosh Sampagaon for patient, accurate and neat special typing and Sri Sai for general typing.

6. To Mrs Prabha Raghavendra Rao and family for their constant encouragement and support.

7. Sri M Nagaraja Rao, Sri N K Joglekar, Dr V B A Achar, Prof G V Kulkarni, Sri A V N Ayyangar, Dr Y S Chakrapani, Dr V D Bendre, Sri R N Manjundappa, Sri K N Belaskar, Sri Mohan Limbikai, Sri M C Patil and a host of friends and well wishers.

8. Sri Shivananda Joshi, Sri Maruthi Gorawar and Sri Jagannath Kagalkar for technical support.

9. My mother Sat Sampathamma, my aunt Sat Padappa, sisters Sumitra and Sulochana, without whose help this massive task could not have been completed.

(KUVALAYA SHYAMA SHARMA)