ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the long span of preparing this thesis, I have taken help at various stages from various sections without which, I would not have been able to complete this work. Hence it is my pleasant duty to record my sincere thanks to all of them.

I am, indeed very much grateful to my research guide Dr. T. T. Basavanagouda, Reader, Department of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad for the patience and kindness with which he supervised this thesis. To be candid, I owe my training in genetical research to him only. His incisive comments and insights have taught me how to critically evaluate the sources – an essential pre-requisite for any genetical reconstruction. In fact, it was he who pursued me to take up this topic for research. I owe gratitude not only for his guidance, but for the constant encouragement he gave me.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor C. G. Hussain Khan, Professor S. V. Hittalmani, Dr. K. C. Tarachand, Professor and Chairman, Dr. P. P. Pavate, Dr. Murahari Naik and Shri R. M. Girji, Department of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their constant encouragement during the course of my research work.

My sincere appreciation and special thanks are due to the Librarian and entire staff of S. S. Basavanal Library, Karnataka University, Dharwad. University of Agricultural Science, Dharwad, Population Research Centre Dharwad, Anthropological Survey of India, Mysore and Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore for their help and co-operation extended during the reference work of my Ph.D. Thesis.

I am grateful to the authorities of Karnataka University, Dharwad for having provided the University Research studentship complete my research work.

I wish to express my gratitude to BIRD'S NGO Staff members and Shakti Sanga Gokak (Female Sex Workers network Belgaum) without whose co-operation and help the collection of data for the present study would not have been possible.
My special thanks are due to Sri. Vandana Gurunani, IAS (Director of KIIT), Karnataka AIDS Prevention Society, ICHAP, Bangalore and VTC Belgaum District for helping me to get information and literature about my research work.

I owe a heavy debt to my father (Late) Shri Shivareddi and mother Smt. Sarojani, who supported me through thick and thin during the long years of my work. In other words, the thesis would not have been possible without their silent and unfailing support during the course of my research work.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to my elder brothers Sri Govindraddi, Sureshraddi, Lingaraddi and Sisters-in-law, Smt. Mahadevi, Renuka, Laxmi and their children without whose co-operation, inspiration and encouragement this work would not have been possible.

I am extremely grateful to my elder sister, Smt. Sundara, brother-in-law, Shri Krishangouda and their Daughter, Savita and Son Umesh, without whose co-operation, inspiration and encouragement this work would not have been possible.

I am deeply indebted to my close friends, Ravikanth Lmani, Shivakumar Ambiger, Mallikargun Koujalagi, Sunil Sajjan, M. Ravindra, Lokesh, Sadashiva Kamble, for helping me throughout my research period.

My thanks are also due to my friends, Chidambar Kabbur, C.S. Patil, Paramanand Gurikar, Ganapati B, M.B. Sabalad, R.B. Patil, S.I. Halolli, Husian M, Ms. Vijaya Meti and VHC member Ingalagi.
