ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my proud privilege to express my sincere thanks to my research guide Dr. C.G.Hussain Khan, under whose able and scholarly supervision I could complete this research work. His constant encouragement and timely guidance have helped me to do this work with utmost sincerely and to the best of ability. My association with him has made me more aware of many complex issues in juvenile delinquency studies in particular and Anthropology in general. I am also grateful to his family members who were kind and hospitable to me during my stay in Dharwad.

My sincere thanks are also due to Professor P.B.Gai, the Head, P.G.Department of Anthropology, Karnatak University, Dharwad for his support in the completion of my work. I also extend my gratitude to Professor K.G.Gurumurthy, Department of Anthropology, Karnatak University, Dharwad for his encouragement. I should express my gratefulness to Dr. S.V.Hittalmani, Dr. K.C.Tarachand, Sri.R.M.Giriji, Dr. P.P.Pavate and Dr. D.M.Naik, who have been of help to me at different stages of my work.

I remain deeply indebted to the people of Tangail paurashava and the inmates of National Institute for Correctional Services, Tongi who have helped me in providing the necessary informations during my fieldwork.

I have no words to express my profound gratitude to my father and mother because without the constant encouragement and inspiration given by them I would not have been able to reach up to this stage where I am today. I must express my indebtedness to my elder sister, Mir Shirin Shamsunnahar for the financial support to me throughout the study and also to younger brother, sisters and in-laws, for their constant support in many ways during my research. I also grateful to the proprietor of IDEAL Graphics, Prakash S. Badiger for computerized typing and Book bindings.

I owe a very special debt of gratitude to my wife for her invaluable encouragement and constant co-operation.
