Let me thank my friends Sri.G.Mahadevan, Smt.Minimol Mathew, Sri.Titto Cherian, Sr.Alice Joseph and my student Viji Ramakrishnan for providing invaluable moral support throughout the period of the study. I also thank my previous and present batches of students for bearing with me for the shortcomings if any, they might have experienced due to my hectic schedule of research work.

Sincere thanks are due to the staff of capital computer centre, Thiruvananthapuram for doing the analysis of data, DTP work and designing of my thesis. The librarians and other members of staff of university library are also thankfully remembered.

I also thank other experts who have taken pains to help me through their suggestions including Dr.S.Divakara Menon, Dr. Bhadra, Sri.Vysakh Mohan, Dr. Deepa, Dr. Vijayan AP,Dr. Shibukumar T.M, Dr. B. Jayakrishnan, Dr. Sr. Alice Mathew, Dr. Jessie Mathews, Sri.Suchithran and Sri. Prem C Shankar.

It is with a deep sense of thankfulness that I fondly remember my father Sri.V.Sukumaran Nair and my mother Smt.B. Sarada Amma for remaining a great source of inspiration and moral strength throughout the mission as always. It would have been impossible for me to achieve the target without their constant aid and unflinching support. It is also to be noted here that my father’s ardent wish hugely inspired me to embark on this venture despite difficult situations.

My two sisters Lekha Rani.S and Brinda Nair.S have heavily contributed in every possible way to keep me focused and achieve the target in time. My gratitude for them is hard to express in words.

The dictum ‘words are few, when the heart is full’ is truly validated when I attempt to express my gratitude to my family. My heartfelt gratitude goes to my dear husband Sri. Ravichandran.C for his creative contributions and inspiring camaraderie during the crucial period. My children Gautham R Chandran, Harsha R Chandran and Mithra R Chandran are thanked from the bottom of my heart for bearing with me and for showing tolerance in an unbelievable manner and extending every help in their own small but fruitful ways. I also take this opportunity to thank each and every person who has directly or indirectly contributed to my research work.
