Acknowledgement

The journey undertaken when pursuing a Ph.D. is a long and arduous one. Fortunately those who provide support, motivation, knowledge, friendship and love, make the trip through the long research and writing process more bearable and very rewarding. This is not only an opportunity to thank the people who have shown great kindness to me over the years, but also to acknowledge their tremendous contribution.

I believe no words could fully encompass the amount of gratitude and respect I have for my research supervisor Prof. B. M. Swamy, Dept. of Biochemistry, Karnatak University, Dharwad. I thank Prof. Swamy not only for his patient guidance and scientific expertise provided during this period, but also for imparting wisdom that has inspired me to be a lifelong learner. I thank him for his trust on me, which allowed me to enjoy a complete freedom to perform. I have been really impressed by his contagious enthusiasm for science, scientific temperament and serious attitude as a scientist. It is a real pleasure to work and communicate with such a polite, honest and open-minded person. I consider myself to be extremely fortunate to have come under the shelter of his scholastic arena, intellectual magnetism and awe-inspiring personality. His inexhaustible knowledge and unfailing support has helped me in the preparation of this thesis from its infancy to final stage.

I have absolutely no words to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. (Smt.) Shashikala R Inamdar, Reader, Dept. of Biochemistry, Karnatak University, Dharwad. I take this opportunity to acknowledge her kindness, keen interest, constructive criticism, whole time co-operation and the concern, which have enabled me to complete this task. I remain indebted to her.

I am very fortunate to come across great personality in the field of Protein Science Prof. H. S. Savithri, Dept. of Biochemistry, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, in my academic career. I remain grateful to her for accommodating me to work in her laboratory as a short-term research worker. I thank her for nurturing, caring, guiding and moulding me as a competent individual to face the advancing scientific world. I really enjoyed brainstorming and open discussions with her.

The legend in the field of Protein Science, whom I respect, is Prof. Appaji Rao, Emeritus professor; Dept. of Biochemistry, I.I.Sc.
Bangalore, and I express my deepest gratitude for his encouragement and valuable advice and suggestions.

I am grateful to Prof. Dipankar Chatterji, MBU, I.I.Sc., for permitting to use the mass spectrometry facilities.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Padma Shastri, Scientist F, NCCS, Pune, for accommodating me to carry out cell line studies. I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude for her everlasting enthusiasm, efforts to explain cell science clearly and made it simpler and more interesting.

I am grateful to the Vice-chancellor and Registrar, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta for permitting to pursue my Ph.D. studies under FIP.

I am indeed grateful to Prof. T. S. Hoovah gowda, Principal, Sahyadri Science College, Shimoga for this constant encouragement and support all these years.

I thank the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for granting me the opportunity to pursue my Ph.D. studies under the Faculty Improvement Programme during Xth plan without which it would not have been possible to complete my Ph.D. studies.

I thank the administrative authorities of, I.I.Sc., Bangalore for granting me the opportunity to work as a short-term research worker to carry out part of my research studies in this prestigious institute. I am also grateful to library authorities of I.I.Sc., for permitting to use the facilities for my research work. I also thank hostel authorities for providing hostel accommodation during my short-term research work.

I wish to thank Soumya Ray Chowdhury, Research Scholar, Dept. of Biochemistry, I.I.Sc., Bangalore, for sharing his knowledge and sparing his valuable time with me especially to pull out SRL gene in spite of his hectic research work. I also thank Poornima, Bhavani, Srisathiyaranarayanan, Subash, Lokesh Bushan, Ramachandra, Smitha Nair, Saraswathi, Vinitha R. Pai, Rajani, Chhavi, Govind, Gayathri, Anju, Someshwar Rao, Sagar, Rajaram, Bharath and Anujith kumar I.I.Sc, for their constant encouragement and also for providing a stimulating and fun environment.
I would like to express my heart felt thanks to Subrahmanya Prakash, Project Assistant, Mass spectrometry facility, MBU, I.I.Sc., for his superb expertise with mass spectrometry. Without his help, this work would never been finished. I also thank Hanumae Gowda and V. Sabareesh for sparing their valuable time for teaching basics of mass spectrometry, which made mass spectrometry very interesting.

I also thank Radha Pujari, NCCS, Pune, for her encouragement. Her tuned hands and expertise in cell culture helped me immensely. I wish to thank Jayashree Jagtap, Vanda Prasad, Sudheer kumar, Gowri Das and Mruthunjay, for being friendly all the time which provided a nice, friendly environment in the laboratory.

At this juncture I would like to thank Dr. V. Thippeswamy, Professor, Community Dentistry, S. D. M. College of Dental Sciences and Hospital, Dharwad, who brought me to Dharwad and suggested me to pursue research studies with Prof. B. M. Swamy. His suggestions and encouragement shaped my research career in the hands of right person. I also thank Mrs. Shailaja Thippeswamy for her affection and encouragement during my stay at Dharwad.

I thank the Chairman, Dr. J. R. Gadag and faculty members, Dr. (Mrs) R. S. Bennur, Dr. S. B. Hinchigeri and Dr. H. Z. Ninnekar, of Dept. of Biochemistry, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for their concern and encouragement during my research tenure.

My sincere thanks to my past research colleagues Dr. G. V. Hegde, Dr. Sundaram and Dr. Anuradha for their help and wonderful company in my research days.

I thank my present research colleagues from the bottom of my heart for their ever lasting support. It is these remarkable people who provided such a nice environment in the laboratory where working is a real fun. At this juncture I would like to mention Mrs. C. Shubhada, Mr. Vishwanath B. Chachadi, Mr. Nagaraja N. Nagre and Mr. Suneeel Kumar Basingi who encouraged and stood by me during hardest of my days. Surely I will miss the wonderful time spent in the lab!

It is indeed a great pleasure to express my heart felt thanks to my friend Dr. Praveen Kumar Shetty for his everlasting support and concern. I wish to thank Raveendra M. Professor, MSRSAS, Bangalore and Dr. S. M. Kantikar, Pathologist, Kantikar Diagnostic Laboratories, Shimoga for their constant encouragement.

I also thank former Head, Dept. of Biochemistry, Prof. G. Maltheshappa, and Present Head, Prof. B.R. Siddaramappa for their encouragement. I would like to register my thanks to my friends Dr. Basavarja padmashali, Dr. C. K. Ramesh, Dr. Onkarappa, Mrs. Anitha, Sri. VittalRao and Mahadeva swamy for their constant encouragement. I am overwhelmed by the constant co-operation and encouragement of my colleagues and friends in Sahyadri Science College, Shimoga.

I would like to specially thank my friend and intellectual companion Dr. Nagaraj, Senior Lecturer, P.G. Dept. Studies in Applied Zoology, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta, Shimoga, for his constant encouragement for research studies and his help in sending most of the research article reprints during his Post Doctoral Studies at Michigan, U.S.A.

On the threshold of my success, only thing that remains to me is to be grateful to my parents whose wishes and sacrifices made this endeavor a reality for me. I take this opportunity to thank my parents, Sri. Jayanna and Smt. Chandramma, who forced me to study hard during my school days. It is their foresight and values paved the way for a privileged education.

I would like to appreciate my grandparents Sri. Nanjundappa, Smt.Parvathi, Smt. Eswaramma and Smt. Thippamma for their unconditional love and support to me.

I would like to express my gratitude to my parent's in-law Sri. Vansanth kumar and Smt. Nagrathna for their affection and encouragement even at the harder times.

I would like to express my thanks to my sisters Vimala, Vani and Rupa, brother Siddu and brothers in-law Thippesh, Ramesh, Hari, Karthik and a number of relatives for their encouragement throughout.

Last, but not least, I specially thank my wife Hema and son Satvik for their great support, patience and understanding. It is their support and encouragement, even in the deepest of turbulent time made me reach this level.
