B. Conventions
(a) Translation:
When English words are enclosed in square brackets it means that they are not part of the original text, but my own interpolations, which are needed or replaced in order to make the text intelligible.
(b) Italics:
Italics indicate either names of books or non-English (Kannada, Sanskrit or Latin) words.
(c) References:
References are to authors’ (or editors’ or translators’) name, year of publication and page number/s, unless and otherwise indicated under abbreviation (part A above). In the case of more than one publication by the same author in a given year, the year of the publication is followed by the letters, A, B, etc.
