ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my deep gratitude to Dr. V. T. Patil, Jawaharlal Nehru Professor of Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for suggesting the research problem "A Comparative Study of Political Awareness Among Two Lamani Settlements of Bellary District" and for his guidance, encouragement help throughout the period of research.

I am highly grateful to the staff of the Department of Political Science, Karnataka University, the Librarians of Karnataka University Library, Dharwad City Library, National Institute for Rural Development Library, Hyderabad, for their kind help in providing other books and information whenever required. I also thank my friends, Shri Manjunath F. Hittalmani, Research Scholar, Department of Geography, Shri T. N. Rajput, Shri D. T. Doddmani, Shri Dasharath Naik and Shri Vinod H. Naik.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to my father Shri V. Thakur Naik, Head Master, Donimalai and to my mother, Smt V. Chandramma, brothers Shri V. Murali Jadesh, Lecturer in Biology, Harpanhalli and Shri V. Janardhan.

My thanks are also due to Shri Shivayogi S. Kammar, Shri Sridhar Bhajantri and Smt S. Kelur for neat computerised typing and printing of the thesis.

V. JAGADEESH