My dear professor Schilpp,

I have your letter in which you ask me to make my introductory account a little more autobiographical than it is at present. I have added a few details, but I do not think that you will be satisfied. Kindly forgive me.

I am not persuaded that the events of my life are of much interest to the readers of this volume. Besides, there is a sense in which our writings, though drawn out of ourselves, are more than what we are. We take much trouble about them even as devoted parents do with their children, for the emotions and desires which make life significant and interesting, how many years lost sight of our souls.

I am now at work on the Fables & Tales and shall send it to you when all the papers reach me, with admiring and grateful regards,

S. Radhakrishnan
