ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset I express my deep sense of gratitude and profound respect to my Research Guide Dr. P.S. Mundinamani, Professor, Department of Studies in Economics, Karnatak University, Dharwad. This work would not have accomplished but for his inspiring guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of the present work. Inspite of his busy schedule, he spared his time to go through the thesis and to make constructive criticism. I shall remain grateful to him forever.

I am very much thankful to Dr. N.S. Hiremath, Professor and former Chairman, Department of Studies in Economics, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for his encouragement during my studies. My special thanks are due to Dr. M.C. Kodli and Dr. S.R. Narappanavar for sparing their precious time in giving thought provoking suggestions. I am also thankful to the teaching and non-teaching Staff of the Department of Studies in Economics, Karnatak University, Dharwad for their cooperation and help.

I am highly grateful to Shri S.P. Kamat, Chairman, and Shri K.G. Naik, Secretary, Kanara Welfare Trust (U.K), for deputing me for one year to complete the Ph.D. work. I owe a debt of deep gratitude to Shri V.A. Joshi, Principal, Gokhale Centenary College, Ankola for his keen interest and continuous encouragement in the progress of my study. He helped me to get the U.G.C. Teacher Fellowship. I also thank my learned colleagues for their encouragement during the course of my research.

My special thanks are due to Dr. C.R. Karsiddappa, Department of Library and Information Science, Dr. T.R. Bhat, Department of Hindi, Karnataka University, Dharwad and Shri H.S. Negalur for their timely assistance.

I also acknowledge the help received from Shri. D.S. Soudatti, Assistant Director of Agriculture, Nargund and Shri B.S. Nelgudda, C.P.I., Gadag, during the field work. The co-operation and help of Shri K.N. Jakoji, Shri D.S. Sutgatti, Shri Balakrishna, Shri S.R. Udupi and Shri Prashant Naik will long be remembered.

My heartfelt thanks are due to the respondents (sample farmers) of Nargund and Gadag blocks for their co-operation in collection of primary data.

I accord my deep sense of gratitude to the University Grant Commission, New Delhi for awarding me the Teacher Fellowship under its Faculty Improvement Programme. I sincerely thank the Regional Deputy Director of Collegiate Education, Dharwad for granting me deputation to carryout this work.
I find no words to express my gratitude to my parents Smt. Savitri and Shri Rama for their continuous support and encouragement during this study. The good wishes and moral support received from my brothers, sisters and relatives make my work pleasant. I heartily thank them all.

I am specially indebted to my wife, Snehalata who shared the pleasure and pains during the course of completing this study. She has been a source of inspiration at every stage of my research work. I thank my children Ganesh and Divya for cheering me with their love and affection.

Finally, I thank all those who helped me directly and indirectly in completing this study.

Dharwad 4K
Date: May 20, 1996

K.R. Bhat
Department of Economics,
Gokhale Centenary College, Ankola