ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I owe my sincere gratitude to Dr. A.B. Kalkundrikar, Professor & Research Guide in Commerce and Director, Institute of Management Education and Research Centre, Belgaum, under whose valuable guidance and advice and with unstinted support and enthusiastic encouragement, this study has been successfully completed.

I offer my profound respects to Dr. B.M. Wali, for his constant moral support and all encouragement throughout the study period along with his valuable suggestions in bringing out the research work. I equally pay my respects to Dr. K.S. Daniel, Prof. C.M. Kotturshetty, former Chairmen, Department of Studies in Commerce and Research, Karnataka University Dharawad. I would be failing in my duty if I don't thank the present Chairman, Dr. S.S. Hugar, for his co-operation till the end of study period.

The accomplishment of this task would have been simply difficult, had not, the Management of Karnataka Law Society, and Governing Body on Gogte College of Commerce, Belgaum permitted me to take up this research study under the U.G.C. FIP programme. I humbly thank the Management and in particular I owe my respects to Shri. R.H. Kulkarni, Veteran Freedom Fighter and Chairman, Karnataka Law Society, Shri. S. M. Kulkarni.
Advocate, Shri.M.R.Kulkarni. Advocate and Late, Shri.V.S.Kulkarni. (Kallolkar) Advocate, & Late, Shri.G.V.Kulkarni (Exambekar) Advocate whose blessings I miss at this juncture of submitting of my work. I thank the Principal, for his co-operation during the study period.

It was the UGC Which provided an opportunity of advanced learning, being in job, without its sanction of study leave on time, I would have missed of being exposed to lot many things in the enrichment of the academic knowledge, I pay my respects to the UGC and HRD Ministry.

I sincerely thank Dr.A.M.Pathan.Vice-Chancellor, Karnataka University Dharawad. for permitting me to avail study leave on behalf of University Grants Commission New-Delhi and Dr.B.P.Waghamare. the Director College Development Council for the administrative support. I thank Dr (Mrs). A. Janaki. Joint Director, Collegiate Education, Regional Office, Dharawad for relieving me on time to report for my Ph.D. study under the UGC / FIP Scheme, Whose support filled in me all the strength in the successful accomplishment of the task, which, I never forget on this occasion.

I am grateful to the Managers of all the 27 public sector commercial banks who co-operated in getting the questionnaires, schedules duly responded by their employees including Officers and Award Staff and also for

For the great sacrifice of his share of love and having missed the possible attention during the study and working hours of mine, I never compensate in any form to my lovely son Master.SHASHANK.M.HIREMATH. rather he helped me to work day and night on computer. He was a great source of immediate and any time help while working on computer, for that matter being an ‘Aptechite’ he is my computer GURU, whose contribution is enormous and unforgettable. My wife Prof. Mrs. Shailaja S. Aralelimath, who is also my colleague and simultaneously doing her research on the subject of “Woman Entrepreneurship” has contributed a lot in different forms all along with me for which words fall short to appreciate the same. I thank my niece Prema, who helped staying with us during the study. The un-flinching moral support of my Aunty Prof (smt) S. G. Hallikerimath, Principal (Rtd), my brother Dr. Mr & Mrs. C. R. Hiremath, of P. C. Jabin Science College, Hubli and family was a constant source of inspiration in all odds and evens throughout the period of my study. Mr. Ramesh V. Patil, of SYSCON Computers Belgaum for continuous and excellent computer services, for whose concern of all these persons I am grateful always.

I thank my friends, well-wishers and colleagues, who inspired me in all the stupendous task of completing this thesis on time. I thank once again all the persons who have contributed directly and indirectly and have shown love to me and in my work.
