ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It was indeed my good fortune to have Dr. (Mrs.) Noorjeewan H. Ganijar, Professor and Chairperson, Post Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad as my research guide. I am immensely indebted to her for her constant encouragement, valuable suggestions and untiring guidance throughout the completion of this work.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. H. M. Kasinath, Professor and Dean, Faculty of Education, Post-graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for having given me this unique opportunity to carry out my research work.

Dr. P. S. Balasubramanian, Professor and Head, (Retd.) Department of Education, University of Madras, Chennai, deserves the fondest and heartfelt gratitude for providing me the right perspective and the blueprint of this study. I express my feelings of profound gratefulness to him. But for his ablest direction, every step of the way, the present work would not have been possible.

I wish sincerely thank Dr. H. H. Ganijar, Professor and Chairman (Retd.), Department of Social Work, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his valuable suggestions and moral support which helped me in completing this research work.
My sincere thanks are due to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Post Graduate Department of Studies in Education and Library staff of the University College of Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad for their support and co-operation.

I extend my sincere thanks to the Librarian and staff of the Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC), Bangalore where I have collected related information for my study.

My warm gratitude and admiration are due to the Heads, teachers and students of all the schools from where I have collected data for this investigation. I affectionately wish to acknowledge the timely assistance and co-operation I received from them.

Very fondly I wish to acknowledge the professional support of the Headmaster of Government high school Harugoppa Tq. Saundatti Dr. Belgaum and my colleagues for their help and cooperation.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to my beloved father Ali Jabab Maktum Husain, G. Mirjamnavar and mother Mehrunnissa, brothers, Mohammed Salim, Dadapeer, sister Smt. Haseernabann, brother-in-law Sardar G. Kadrolli and all my family members who have stood by and helped me in all respects to fulfill this requirement.

My warm gratefulness and admiration go to my revered and respected grandfather Allaj Abdul Khadar, K. Bhisty for his inspiration and encouragement to undertake this research study.
I affectionately wish to acknowledge the professional and moral support of Mr. S. S. Bellary, DDPI, DIET, Belgaum for his valuable suggestions and moral support which helped me in completing this research work.

All my heartfelt thanks are due to my life partner Mrs. Sayeda Afreenbunn for her wholehearted endurance and support.

My sincere thanks to Shri Prakash K. Yavalekar for his excellent computer typing work.

Finally, I would like to thank all those who have helped me in one or the other way, but for them this study would not have been a reality.
