CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Aim
1.2 Sources
1.3 Rajaji's problem
1.4 Rajaji's method
1.5 Method followed in the thesis
1.6 Content of the thesis

CHAPTER 2

THE KEY CONCEPTS OF RAJAJI'S PHILOSOPHY

2.1 Definition
2.2 Dharma as the inner law
2.3 Dharma as ethical conduct
2.4 Dharma as a person
2.5 The sources of dharma
2.6 Dharma and individual conflict
2.7 The relevance of dharma to the contemporary society

CHAPTER 3

RAJAJI'S VIEWS ON ECONOMIC INSTITUTIONS

3.1 Private property and trusteeship
3.2 Taxation and the fate of the Indian
3.3 Defects of planning

CHAPTER 4

RAJAJI ON PROHIBITION

4.1 The evil of alcoholism
CHAPTER 5
CASTE AND SOCIETY
5.1 Class and caste in India 92
5.2 The Negro problem 115
5.3 The question of reservations 118

CHAPTER 6
THE MIDDLE OF SOCIALISM
6.1 Socialism in general 123
6.2 The socialism of Gandhiji 130
6.3 The Indian brand of socialism after Gandhiji 135

CHAPTER 7
THE CRITIQUE OF DEMOCRACY
7.1 Liberal democracy 144
7.2 Democratic socialism 153
7.3 Totalitarianism—Bureaucracy 157
7.4 Minimum government 162

CHAPTER 8
THE DILEMMA OF THE LANGUAGE PROBLEM
8.1 Arguments for Hindi 166
8.2 Methods to be adopted to implement Hindi 174
8.3 Practical advantages of learning Hindi 176
8.4 National and official language 178
8.5 The injustice to the Southerners 184
8.6 Inconsistencies and reasons 187
CHAPTER 9
The Ideal of Education
9.1 Principles of education 192
9.2 Education for wisdom/sharma 198
9.3 Professional education 204

CHAPTER 10
Culture—the Bedrock of Society
10.1 General definition of culture 214
10.2 The ethical nature of culture 219
10.3 The learning of classics (Puranas and Mythology) 227

CHAPTER 11
Rajaji's Views on Philosophy and Religion 234
11.1 Science, religion and society 234
11.2 Vedanta—its relevance to society 240
11.3 Bakti and social institutions 246
11.4 Rajaji's philosophy of God and humanism 249

CHAPTER 12
Conclusion 253
12.1 Individualism 253
12.2 The question of consistency 254
12.3 Dharma, the ruling principle of Rajaji's thought 255

BIBLIOGRAPHY
Books 1
Journals IX