Acknowledgements

It is my duty to acknowledge the help, support, guidance and information received from a number of individuals and organizations in preparing this research work.

First of all, I am heartily thankful to my guide Dr. V. Murugaiah and co-guide Prof. K.S. Daniel for their encouragement, guidance and sustained advice. Through this acknowledgement I thank their family members for the botheration I caused them on my visits to their houses.

Secondly, I wish to acknowledge the support extended by the Chairman of Commerce Department, Prof. Hugar S.S. and other colleagues in the Department.

Thirdly, I am deeply indebted to the organizers of the workshops and conferences who provided me with an opportunity to participate. This has helped me to enrich my knowledge in the subject and update my thesis. Particularly I thank All India Commerce Association, (All India Commerce Conferences held at Hyderabad (in 1996), Patna (in 1997), and Dharbanga(Bihar) (in 1998), Indian Economic Association (83rd Economic Conference, Amritsar (Punjab) 1999), Consumers Forum, Basrur (Legal Update Programme at Kundapur), CREATE, Bangalore and CUTS, Jaipur (Workshop on Eco-frig and Sustainable Consumption), Shimoga District Consumer Organizations Association (State Level Consumer Associations Conference, Sagar) and Department of Commerce, Karnatak University, Belgaum (Seminar on Consumerism).

Fourthly, I offer my gratitude to the consumer activists and Voluntary Consumer Organisations for providing me with information. Particularly I am thankful to the Consumer Education and Research Centre, Ahmedabad, the Consumer Guidance Society of India, Mumbai, the Mumbai Grahak Panchayath, Mumbai, the Consumer Unity and Trust Society, Jaipur, the Common Cause, New Delhi, the Voluntary Organizations in the Interest of Consumer Education, New Delhi, and all VCOs in Karnataka. In Karnataka I am particularly thankful to consumer activists Jajie Mandanna, Ravindranath Shanbhag, Damodar Aithal, Late P. Narayana Rao, A.V. Huilgol, Jayaswamy and Venkatagiri Rao for providing necessary information.

Fifthly, I thank Business Associations for sending me their 'Code Conduct' and other materials on my request. I also thank the officers concerned in Public Sectors and Government Departments for making available to me their citizen charters.

The Library Staff of the following libraries deserve my special thanks: CERC, Ahmedabad, IIM Ahmedabad, IIM Bangalore, Karnatak University Dharwad and Karnatak University P.G. Centre at Belgaum.

I also wish to express my deep gratitude to Presidents and Members and Officials of National Commission, State Commission and District Fora in Karnataka for making me available the latest information on the working of Consumer Disputes Redressal Agencies.

I thank all the 675 consumers who have taken the trouble of answering my questionnaire. I also thank my students for helping me in conducting the consumer survey.

I thank my wife, Veena for tolerating my 'hell fallen on me approach with her' and my son, Anuchan for 'sending me out of the house for work'.

Finally I thank my parents for encouraging me to work even during vacations when they were forced to lead a 'lonely life' in an isolated farm house.

H.R. Venkatesha.
