ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I deem it as a pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. (Smt.) N. N. Ganihar, Professor, and Chairperson Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for allowing me to pursue my doctoral study on the present topic.

My deep sense of gratitude to Dr. H.M. Kasinath, Professor Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Education, and Dean, Faculty of Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for the sustained guidance and constant encouragement given to me throughout the endeavour. I am greatly indebted to him for his inspiration, timely help and invaluable initiation.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not thank the principals, teachers and students of the Secondary Schools of Dharwad District, for their co-operation extended to me at the time of collection of data.

I wish to acknowledge with indebtedness the contributions of Dr. K.C. Tarachand, Professor of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad in helping me to complete this study. His kind gestures and helpful attitude has inspired me in the completion of this work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Hon’ble Chairman of the K.L.E Society, Belgaum Sri Prabhakar Kore, Vice-chairman Sri Ashokanna Bhagewadi, Secretary Dr. F.V. Manvi, Joint Secretary Dr. S.R. Gundakalle and other esteemed members of the local governing body, KLE Society's College of Education, Nippani for their continuous cooperation and encouragement shown throughout my research work.

I am thankful to Shri S.B. Javali for his help in computer analysis of the data. I am also thankful to Shri Basavaraj V. Dammalli for their help in computerizing the thesis.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to all my Brothers and Sisters in my family who share my sorrows and enjoyable moments of my research work. With all my proud and privilege I record my sincere thanks to my wife Smt. Shashikala M. Sajjanar; and also my father-in-law Sri S.V. Dalavai and family members for their encouragement and inspiration throughout the endeavour.
It is right moment for me to remember the tolerance of my beloved children
Ku. Mrityunjaya and Km. Sneha (Danamma) in completing my research work.

I am indebted to all my colleagues and students of KLE Society's College of Education, Nippani and to principals, staff and students of K.L.E. Society's Colleges of Education for their help and cooperation.

Finally, I am also very much indebted to all my well-wishers for their cooperation, assistance and guidance at various stages of this study.

September, 2006
