ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I humbly acknowledge the grace of the Almighty and the blessings of His Holiness Dr. Syedna Mohammed Burhanuddin (T.U.S.) and Mufaddal Bhai Saheb Saifuddin (T.U.S).

Words would be insufficient to express my deep gratitude to my professor and guide Dr. Prashant K. Sinha for his invaluable advice and guidance during the course of this dissertation. He has been a constant pillar of encouragement and support. His erudition, insightful knowledge and scholarly discussions have always motivated me to look beyond the usual. I sincerely appreciate his open minded approach to the differential viewpoints that often arose during the course of this dissertation. It has indeed been a privilege to have been a student of an excellent teacher, a dedicated guide and a human being par excellence.

My parents and parents-in-law cannot be thanked enough. They have always stood by me and appreciated my efforts. Without their rock solid support and encouragement, this quest for research and knowledge would have remained a distant dream.

I would also like to thank my husband, my daughters and my sisters-in-law for their constant motivation during the course of this dissertation. Their patience and unflinching support has indeed helped me towards my goal.

My deep gratitude to Mrs. Usha Sinha whose caring and gentle nature ensured that I was always comfortable during the often long discussions that I had with my guide. Her sincere belief in my capacities always encouraged me to perform to the best of my ability.
Thanks are also due to the staff of the Jayakar Library, University of Pune, Aalochna, Pune, Women's Studies Centre, University of Pune, The Ramesh Mohan Library at the EFL institute, Hyderabad as also The British Library, Pune for facilitating me with the required material.
