Acknowledgement

This work has benefitted greatly from the input and support of many people over the past six years and my gratitude at its completion is extended especially to those mentioned below.

I am deeply indebted to my guide Dr. G. H. Barhate, Chairman, Research Centre in Commerce, C. D. Jain College of Commerce, Shrirampur, whose constructive guidance, encouragement, support and continuous patience have been instrumental in making this study possible.

I am also thankful to Dr. B. R. Adik, Vice Principal, Head of Department of Economics, C. D. Jain College of Commerce, Shrirampur for his valuable guidance and help.

I deem, it is my pleasant duty to offer thanks to Dr. J. R. Bhor, Board of Studies, University of Pune and Dr. T. B. Bathe, Director, Aditya College of M.B.A., Beed for sowing seeds of research in my mind and has been continuous source of inspiration from registration for Ph. D. till today. I am also thankful to Dr. Nayak, Registrar, Board of Studies, University of Pune for his kind support.

I express my sincere gratitude to the officials of both the exchanges, NSE and BSE, who had been kind enough to extend their support and kind co-operation in my work with regard to data required for the research work.

I am thankful to the officials of SEBI who has been kind enough to extend their support and kind co-operation with regard to data required for the research work.

I am also thankful to all my friends and colleagues from current organization Edelweiss, friends and colleagues from earlier organization Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), friends from Sainik School, Satara and all other friends who had supported me in ensuring the circulation of the questionnaire to large number of investors to ensure large participation in the survey.
I am also thankful to Association of National Members of India (ANMI), my fellow colleagues from the broking fraternity and compliance functions who have keenly participated in the member's survey, informal discussions, unstructured interviews and provided the responses and has been very forthcoming in expressing their views.

I would like to express my gratitude to Mr. T. V. Rangaswami, EVP, Edelweiss and Mr. Himanshu Kaji, Executive Director & Group COO, Edelweiss who has immensely supported me in the research work and also ensured that I could be given some time whenever required to carry out research work. I am also thankful to the Edelweiss as an organization and colleagues from the organization who have provided me the complete support in my research work, spent time on discussions and gave important suggestions from time to time which have been instrumental in shaping the research work. My ex-colleagues from SEBI and also colleagues of Edelweiss have also been really encouraging me from time to time to complete the research work.

I am thankful to C.D. Jain College Library, Shrirampur, PIRENS Library, Loni, Sangamner College Library, Sangamner, Jaikar Library, Pune, National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM), Pune, for their generous help in making available all necessary data for my research work.

I am thankful to Prin. Dr. S. M. Kamble and Mr. L.B. Rahane, Registrar, C.D. Jain College of Commerce, Shrirampur and all staff members of the C. D. Jain College.

I would like to mention here that the research work here is an outcome of constant inspiration and encouragement received from my father Dr. T. B. Bathe, my wife Mrs. Megha Bathe and my daughter Ms. Swara Bathe who has shown patience and supported in whatever manner possible in completing my research work. This research work is the blessings of my mother Sou. Usha Bathe and wellwishes of my brother Dr. Sandeep Bathe and my sister Dr. Swapnali Bathe.

This research work is an outcome of not only researcher’s efforts but also a product of honest guidance of many people. The researcher is thankful to all these dignitaries who have helped in various ways to complete this work.
