ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The finest sentiments of one's heart are better expressed through words and flowers.

Expression of sense of gratitude is a virtuous quality of human mind. Indeed, it is a pleasure to place on record a deep sense of gratitude to all those noble souls who have helped me to bring this work to fruition.

I place on record my foremost intellectual and personal gratitude to my Research Guide, Dr. N.G. Chachadi, Reader and Head of the Department of Economics, Karnataka Arts College, Dharwad. His incessant striving for truth stimulated me to assimilate enormous data. His untiring supervision and guidance led me to complete the study successfully.

The students are, what the teachers make. I express my sincere appreciation and profound gratitude to my Hon'ble Teacher and an Economist of high eminence Dr. D. M. Nanjundappa - former Vice-Chancellor, Karnataka and Bangalore Universities and now Deputy Chairman, Planning Board, Government of Karnataka, who kindled in me the research zeal. I place on record my deep sense of thankfulness to my revered teachers of the Department of Studies in Economics, Dr. M. A. Adhoni, Professor and Chairman, (Retd), Dr. N. S. Hiremath, Professor and former Dean of Social Sciences and Dr. R. V. Dadibhavi, Professor and Chairman, for their academic counselling.

No words can adequately express my sense of gratitude to Dr. P. S. Halyal, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Psychology, Karnataka University, Dharwad, in generating perennial interest in me in the realm of Psychology. As an alumnus of Economics, I was alien to the discipline of Psychology. His incessant and proficient guidance enabled me not only to understand the concept of 'attitudes' but also to craft the scales measuring workers' attitudes. I respectfully place on record my deep sense of thankfulness to this noble soul.

Objectivity is the cream of any research study. It demands that the data should speak and not the researcher. My foremost intellectual and academic obligation is to my teacher Prof. C. G. Hiremath, Principal, Hallikeri Gudleppa College, Dharwad, whose unerringly assistance in analysing the statistical information objectively, has filled my heart with deep sense of gratitude. I place on record my deep sense of thankfulness to my veteran teacher, Dr. M. V. Muddapur, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Statistics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, whose timely assistance in computerising the data is indeed unforgettable.

Indeed it is an experience to listen to and discuss with the accomplished teachers. The discussion with my professional colleague Dr. A. R. Vadakannavar, C.S.I. College, Dharwad, opened up a new horizon of ideas and thinking. His incisive ideas have appreciably altered and improved my work at numerous points of study. I am academically beholden to this scholastic personality.

I am beholden to my colleagues Prof. A. I. Shigli and Prof. M. M. Sayed who were resourceful in compiling the data systematically and meaningfully.

Indeed it is my privilege to place on record my gratefulness to Shri B. Shanta Ram Bhat - Senior Manager, Malaprabha Grameen Bank, Dharwad, who took lot of pains in reading my first draft carefully and effecting suitable changes to make the text more crisp and lucid.

I am singularly fortunate in having a well-wisher of the eminence of Alijanab M. M. Mysore - Hon'ble Member, Nehru College Education Board, who has been a constant source of inspiration in my academic pursuits. It is indeed a pleasure to acknowledge my personal gratitude to our Hon'ble Member.
My academic pursuits would have been impossible, had my superiors not permitted me to visit the places of study as and when the situation demanded. My special academic acknowledgement is made to Principal S. Abdul Kareem (Retd.) and Principal H.M. Hukkeri for their generosity.

I am grateful to my learned colleagues Prof A.D. Shilledar, Prof A.F. Laxmeshwar, Dr. (Smt) Z.H. Mulla, Prof S.S. Sayed, Prof V.F. Gangaraddy, Prof Anvar Baig, Prof. S.M.A. Farooqui, Prof M.B. Patil, Shri K.L. Mokashi, Librarian, (Retd.), Smt. Tasneem Mujeeb, Librarian, as also other Members on Library Staff.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. I sincerely acknowledge the assistance lent by my Faculty-friends Prof N.B. Badiger, Prof G.A. Kalburgi and Prof M.M. Giri who meticulously read my first draft.

I am highly appreciative of the keen academic interest manifested by the top level Management of K.S.R.T.C. I acknowledge my deep thankfulness to Shri P.D. Shetty, I.A.S., the Managing Director, Shri K.M. Desai - Chief Personnel Officer, Shri S.V. Katti - Works Manager, R.W. Hubli and Shri Vishwanath - Works Manager, R.W. Bangalore, for having granted permission to conduct the study in both the workshops. I am sincerely thankful to Shri K.Y. Mulla, (Retd.), In-charge Assistant Statistician for having helped me in getting the permission.

I place on record, in all academic sincerity, the insightful support of all the Members on the staff of R.W. Hubli, particularly Shri H.G. Kittur, Statistical Officer, Shri M.K. Mulla - Sr. Assistant, Shri R.T. Rao, Accounts Superintendent, Shri S.D. Savanur, Shri M.V. Balambeed (Retd.), Shri N.K. JadHAV for having unhesitatingly provided me with authentic data and study material. Similarly, I owe a great sense of gratitude to all the Members placed on the Staff of R.W. Bangalore particularly Shri Mohammed Hafeezullah, Labour Welfare Officer, Madam Rita, Statistical Officer, Shri H.P. Gangegowda, Accounts Officer and Shri Uttappa, Deputy Superintendent, for their sympathetic hospitality and provision of authentic information and data.

I am academically beholden to the sample respondents of both Workshops for their unique co-operation in extending unbiased and trustworthy responses.

I am academically obliged to the Directors as also the Library Staff of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay, the Labour Research Institute, Bombay, the Central Institute for Road Transportation, Pune, the Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore and the Centre for Multi-Disciplinary Development and Research, Dharwad, for having extended me the opportunity to utilise library facility.

I express my sincere gratitude to the authors and publishers of the literature referred to.

Blessed are the souls who firmly believe in helping the cause of academics and yet remaining behind the screen. The personality who has typed this text comes into this category. If neat and error-free typing is an art, the placement of master tables is a ticklish and hard-earned skill. I am highly appreciative of these hands who have typed my text skillfully and diligently.

I am academically beholden to my student-friend Mr. Zaheed Mulla as also Shri Md. Ab Savanur Saheb for their ungrudging assistance in drafting the diagrams diligently. I am beholden to my yet another student-friend Mr. Zuber-Ahmed Pallan, an architect, who was resourceful in designing the layout maps of both the Workshops.

I am highly appreciative of tremendous co-operation I received from wife - Mumtaz Beguarn, son Shabbeer-Ahmed and daughter Zainbunnisa alias Nafeesa whose patience, support, encouragement, understanding and love helped me in completing this work successfully.

Dharwad
