ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my teacher and guide Dr. V.S.Patil, Retired Professor and Chairman, Department of Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, Who suggested the topic and guided this research work. It would not have been possible for me to complete the study without his constant encouragement, cooperation and guidance.

I am ever grateful to my teacher Dr. A. M. Rajashekharayya, Retired Professor of Ambedkar Chair, Department of Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, who has given valuable suggestions.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Valasangad Panchaksharappa, a freedom fighter of Haveri who provided me primary information about the topic. I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Patil Puttappa, a veteran journalist, Hubli, who spared much of his precious time for me.

I am thankful to Smt. Girijamma Hosamani – daughter in law of Hosamani Siddappa, who provided the valuable materials needed for my research work.

I am thankful to various distinguished personalities, like Mahadeva Banakar, S.Nigalingappa, S.R.Neshvi, I.G.Hiregoudar, Prof. C.P.Hemagirimath, and many others whom I have interviewed in this connection. They were all kind and co-operative in giving the required information.

I am very much grateful to the Library authorities of the Karnataka University Library, Dharwad, the Central Library, Dharwad, the Vidyavardhaka Sangha Library, Dharwad, The Karnataka Gazetteer, Government of Karnataka, Bangalore.

I must be thankful to the Samyukta Karnataka Press Library, Hubli, the Basavraj Patrike Library, Haveri and the Prapancha, Hubli for providing me the back files.

I am indebted to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, the Karnataka University, Dharwad, the Governing Body and Principal, S.S.Women's College, Hukkerimath, Haveri for giving me an opportunity to complete this work under the Faculty Improvement Programme.

Finally I must place on record my gratitude to various other individuals and institutions who have given their full co-operation and assistance but whom I cannot, for want of space, name individually.
