ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I consider it as my great honor to place on record my sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me directly and indirectly in successfully completing this thesis.

My primary debt is to my research guide Dr. K. Anban, Professor of Linguistics, Dr. R. C. Hiremath Institute of Kannada Studies, Karnataka University, Dharwad, who has helped me in more ways than one to complete my Ph. D. thesis. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. K. Anban, for being my research guide. I am very fortunate to have worked under him. I express my deep sense of gratitude to him for suggesting this interesting topic. This research work could not have been completed without his excellent advice and sincere criticism at every stage of my study. I am deeply indebted to him for his inspiring guidance, enlightened discussion, intellectual assistance and constant encouragement throughout my doctoral studies. I have no sufficient words to express my gratitude to him. I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to his family.

I remember with profound gratitude the constant interest evidenced in my research work by my teachers Dr. A. Murigappa (Retired Professor), Dr. Mahesvariah, Dr. R. M. Nayak, Dr. Rajeswari Mahesvariah, Dr. R. S. Hiremath (Retired Reader) and Late Dr. William Madtha. They all were generous enough to give useful tips and suggestions.
I am also thankful to the Dr. B. R. Hiremath, Chairman, Dr. R. C. Hiremath Institute of Kannada Studies, Karnataka University Dharwad, for his concern, help and moral support.

I sincerely thank all other Professors, Colleagues and others, teaching and non teaching staff of Dr. R. C. Hiremath Institute of Kannada Studies, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for their concern and moral support.

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the assistance extended by various individuals in the completion of this research work. It is almost impossible to do this kind of research work without the guidance and co-ordination of right persons at the right time.

I am indebted to the Library staff of Karnataka University, Dharwad, Dr. R. C. Hiremath Institute of Kannada Studies, Karnataka University, Dharwad and Kannada Research Institute Karnataka University, Dharwad.

I take this opportunity to express my heart felt thanks to all my family members to my sisters, brothers-in-law, brothers, sisters-in-law, uncles, aunts and cousins. Very fondly I remember and acknowledge with affection the help and encouragement of my nieces, Shilpa, Soumya, Shweta, Smita and my nephews, Prashant, Prabhu and Pradeep.

I cannot forget the help rendered by my cousin Sunil, especially in providing his computer services. I am deeply obliged to my dearest friend Stella Steven, for her help and valuable suggestions. I thank her from the bottom of my heart.
There are several friends and students, to whom I would like to, extend my thanks.

Last but not the least, I am forever grateful to God Almighty. My faith in him helped me to pursue my research studies through all tough times. He blessed me with good health to work hard and complete my Doctoral Studies.
