ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Words are often too weak to express one’s inner feelings of indebtedness to one’s well wishers”.

A research study can’t be completed without the guidance, assistance, inspiration and cooperation from various persons. I feel honored to express my deep sense of gratitude to the most important personalities who have guided and helped me to complete Ph.D. thesis.

First and foremost, I bow my head with folded hands in reverence to ‘The Almighty God’ for providing me the positive strength and energy, much needed physical and mental stamina to complete this mammoth task.

My words of acknowledgement can never express the sense of deep regards and gratitude towards my esteemed supervisor, Dr. Neena Malhotra, Associate Professor, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for her valuable guidance, constant supervision, sustained interest and encouragement throughout the period of my research work. Despite her additional academic commitments and other responsibilities, she spared her valuable time to solve my difficulties and this work is a reward of her blessings. It has been great fortune to study under her guidance. I have learned a lot from her.

I am also thankful to Dr. Paramjit Kaur Nanda, Professor and Head, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for providing me support and research facilities for the completion of this work.

My sincere thanks to S. Mukhtiar Singh and S. Bakhtawar Singh, Librarians, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, for their help in making best use of the library. I would also like to thank non-teaching staff members of the department for their kind support and cooperation.

During the course of the study, I visited a number of institutions and Libraries like Ratan Tata Library, Delhi University; Jawaharlal Nehru University Library (JNU), New Delhi; Library of Panjab University, Chandigarh; Bhai Kahn Singh Nabha
Library, Punjabi University, Patiala and Library of CRRID (Center for Research in Rural and Industrial Development), Chandigarh etc. I gratefully acknowledge the help rendered by the librarians of these institutions for extending me access to the research material available in these libraries.

I do not find appropriate words to pay my gratitude towards my Father Sh. Tarsem Lal who has been a moving spirit behind all my achievements. I would also like to thank my mother, Smt. Raj Rani who refrained me from household activities so that I could go on with my Ph.D. work easily. Without the encouragement and moral support of my parents, I could never have been what I am today. I owe very special gratefulness to my loving brother Sukhwinder Bains, who stood by me in difficult times and showed me the right path.

My sincerest thanks are also to my all nears and dears, who prayed for my successful completion of work. I express my heart full thanks to my friend Dr. Supreet whose contribution to this work in terms of valuable suggestions is beyond the limit of words. I would also like to thank my friends Deepika, Nayia and Harpreet, who supported me throughout my research work.

Last but not least, I extend my profound thanks to Computer Hut, # 66, Kabir Park, Market opp. GNDU, (Amritsar) for editing my thesis.
