Acknowledgements

I take this opportunity, to place on record, my deep sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me throughout the period of my research study.

I thank my Research Guide Dr. M.R. Shollapur, for guiding me in this academic venture. His insights, expertise, creative inputs, patience and advice has helped me to complete my research work timely and satisfactorily. I profusely thank him for his encouragement and support.

I wish to thank Dr. S.S. Hugkar, Dean, Department of Studies in Commerce for giving me an opportunity to carry out this research in Karnataka University, Dharwad. Similarly, my thanks are due to Dr. S.G. Hundekar, Dr. R.L. Hyderabad, Dr. K.N. Babu and Prof. (Miss) A.N. Tamragundi for their help and encouragement during my research work.

Prof. Appannaiah, a wonderful human being, has also given me the strength and support during my research work. I sincerely thank him for the same.

I owe many thanks to my family for being with me and making things possible for me. My beloved parents, Mr. Ramachander and Mrs. Usha, for supporting me throughout, not only during the research work, but also for bringing me up to this level. This is the only opportunity to thank them immensely for all their blessings showered on me. My daughters, Shweta and Smriti, for their prayers which gave me strength at all hardships I faced.

I would like to thank my husband Late R. Virender Kumar, though not near, will be very happy to see from the other world, the work of his wife. A person, whom I wish would have been with me throughout my life. Thank you, Virender and I will miss you.
Above all, I would like to place a deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to Mr. Lokesh S. He was with me throughout the period of research and has helped me in collection, tabulation and interpretation through his computer skills. I thank him very much for his help in completing my work as scheduled.

Similarly I will be failing in my duty if I miss to thank all the respondent consumers and dealers without whose response the study would not have seen the light of the day.

I would like to thank Mr. Jose, Wipro, for his assistance in carrying out this project. A special thanks to all those people (my family and friends) who have encouraged me throughout.

I hope this work would benefit everyone. Brand positioning is an integral and critical path of planning and developing marketing strategies. This study offers insights on brand positioning in white goods sector. I find my work rewarding if it can help atleast a few marketers in positioning their brands strongly and effectively.
