I thank Almighty God immensely He is the power behind my every success and endeavour!

I am deeply indebted to former and the present Heads of the department of Linguistics Dr. A. Murigappa and Late Dr. Hiremath of Dr. R.C.H. Institute of Kannada Studies, Karnatak University, Dharwad for permitting me to carry out this study.

I express my immense gratitude to my Research supervisor Dr.Rajeshwari Maheshwaraiah, Head of the department of Kannada, Karnataka Arts College, Dharwad for having opened the door of opportunity to do research under her guidance. She is the torchbearer of the march of my research. I remain indebted to her for her insight and direction, thoughtfulness, generosity, ever-readiness to help and affection shown to me for accomplishing the present task. She helped me in visualizing new perspectives in the area of language teaching. The drafts were refined and enriched by her insights. I record my deep sense of gratitude to her.

I am also grateful to Dr. Maheshwaraiah, Professor and Dean Karnataka University Dharwad, for his valuable suggestions during the course of my study and for his timely help rendered to me whenever I approached him.

I woe my gratitude to Mrs. Judy Wardale Rtd. Teacher St. John’s Regional college Australia and Sunshine project co-coordinator Australia whose passion for the English language is without boundary. She is, in my opinion, a guiding star in the wilderness. I am extremely grateful for her immense help and valuable suggestions from the beginning of my research work. She has lavishly spent her time to mould me and to better my research work. She cheerfully read the entire text and helped to improve its presentation in many ways. The lucidity achieved in the thesis is largely attributed to her.
It is my duty to thank the authorities of Karnatak University Department of Linguistics DR.R.C.H. Institute of Kannada Studies, Dharwad who have enabled me to carry out the research successfully.

I especially thank Mr. Astral, Research Scholar for his perennial source of encouragement and constant help. I thank all my friends who extended their helping hands to me directly or indirectly in ameliorating the quality of the present work.

My heartfelt thanks to the headmasters, headmistresses and teachers of the selected schools of Raichur and Udupi districts of Karnataka for having extended their co-operation during the time of data collection.

I express my sincere gratitude to the library staff of University Dharwad, for their service rendered during my research work. I take this opportunity to record my deep sense of gratitude to my dear St. Ann's Congregation and my Provincial Superior Sr. Charlotte for providing me with opportunities to complete my research. My genuine thanks are expressed to my community members, St. Ann's Convent Piusnagar Kundapur, for their moral support and motivation.

I, with all sincerity, record my sense of gratitude to my loving mother Mrs. Sobina Vas, my father Mr. Elias Vas, my loving brother Ignatius Francis Vas & sister-in-law Anita Vas, my sisters and brothers-in-law Matilda & Walter, Diana & Melwin, Zenith & Pradeep, Judith & Raphael and Sr. Emmy. Their blessing, love, affection and dreams placed me in the high seats of learning to broaden my mental horizon and to acquire academic acumen to accomplish the present task. The present work is, thus, dedicated to them with affection and admiration.

Sr. Sylvina.
