ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When I was dabbling in Indian English Literature, Dr. B.S. Naikar, my guru and guide, who has been shaping my interests, and drawing my attention to something solid and valid, ever since my P.G. days at the Department of English, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga, directed my attention to Anglo-Indian Literature and also asked me to read Dr. M.K. Naik's book Mirror on the Wall.... The reading was revelation. It opened comparatively less traveled terrain before me, and I decided to travel in it, search and study the novels of Mrs. B.M. Croker.

I sincerely acknowledge the unceasing encouragement of the esteemed management of my college and Prof. V.S. Benchalli, Principal of my college who never restrained the help and support in this project.

Unavailability of books was rather a frustrating factor. In procuring the rarest and unavailable books and other study material useful to my work, many persons have joined their hands directly and indirectly. It is place to record my indebtedness to them. I remain thankful forever to Prof. Mohan Ramanan, University of Hyderabad; Prof. K.M. Chandar, University of Mysore; Prof. R. M. Badode, University of Bombay, Mumbai; Prof.N. I. Divatankar, Head, Dept. of Library and Information Science, Shivaji University, Kolhapur; Dr. M.G. Pujar, Scientist, Kalapakkam; Mr. Sunil Khemakar, Asiatic Society Library Mumbai.

My indebtedness is beyond words to the great stalwarts, scholars and teachers whose words of advice and encouragement during the course of discussion with them have gone a long way in the course of my study. The list of their names is fairly long, which includes Dr. Reed Way Dasenbrock and Dr. Feroza Jussa Wallah Professors of University of New Mexico, U.S.A.; Dr. G.S.
Balarama Gupta, former Professor of English Gulbarga University, Gulbarga; Dr. C.V. Venugopal and Dr. C.R. Yeravintaclimath former Professors of English, Karnatak University, Dharwad; Dr. B.M. Jabannanavar, Retired Principal, Naragund; Dr. K. Venkata Reddy and Dr. C.R. Visweswara Rao, former Professors of English, S.K. University Anantapur; Dr. K.C. Belliappa, Vice-Chancellor, Arunachal Pradesh.

During the course of my journey to several places in the search for books I am helped by the persons like Mr. K.S. Joshi, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Chemical Engineering, SDMCET; Prof. L.S. Patil of Haveri, who accompanied me to many places again and again in spite of their busy schedule for which I owe a lot to them. I am very much thankful to Mr. And Mrs. Ashrits of Talegaon Dhabade and Mr. And Mrs. Kulkarni of Ambarath, Mumbai, Mr. Shankar Khemakar, President, Maratha Mandal, Parel, Mumbai; who showered hospitality on me when I stayed in their homes for days and weeks.

My colleagues and friends have displayed unmitigated interest in the progress of this work, I remain deeply thankful to them all.

I place my special thanks to the librarian of my college Sri. C.C. Kotagi, who connected me with many librarians. I am greatly thankful to the respective librarians of the following libraries: Shivaji University Library, Kolhapur; Bombay University Library, Mumbai; Royal Asiatic Society Library, Mumbai; Fergusson College Library, Pune; Poona University Library, Pune; Deccan College Library, Pune; Connamara Library, Chennai; Andhra University Library, Vishakhapattanam; Osmania University Library, Hyderabad; Mysore University Library, Mysore; Tata Institute of Social Sciences Library, Deonar, Mumbai.
I thank profusely my parents, brothers, father-in-law and mother-in-law.

My maternal uncles Shri S. R. Dixit and family and Mr. N. R. Dixit, Retired Principal, Koppal and his wife Mrs. Geeta Dixit who sheltered me during my Secondary School days and solidified the desire of academic pursuits in me deserve my heart-felt thanks particularly.

I must honestly record the pain borne and the patience displayed by my wife Mrs. Shailaja who let me at my liberty taking the responsibilities of family, while delighting when my thoughts caught words and jumped on the pages after sipping a cup of hot tea with her. My words of thanks are specially reserved for my sons Chi. Manyukumar and Chi. Chandrashekhar who watched me with wonder that I was doing something important and serious and sacrificed their moments of leisure and lessons with me.

Lastly I must thank Mr. Krishna A. Hampiholi, Pavan D.T.P. & Styles of Byadgi who has got, the all too impossible to read handwriting of mine, rather neatly and flawlessly, typed with tolerance inspite of his busy schedule.

Date: 8-7-2008
Place: Dharwad

S.G. Vaidya
Dept. of English
B.E.S.M. Degree College
BYADGI-581 06.
Karnataka State, India.