ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My sincere acknowledgement to almighty which has been the ultimate source of inspiration and inner strength at all times in my life.

It gives me an immense pleasure in expressing my gratitude towards my guide Dr. Suhas Mahajan who has been a continuous source of inspiration throughout my project. Sir extended his support and guidance at various stages of my research work which has helped me in completing my research in all respect.

I would also like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Sanjay Kaptan, Research Head, University of Pune, Dept. of Commerce and Research for his help and assistance in my research irrespective of his busy schedule. I would be grateful to all the bank officials and the bank customers for providing me the required information without which the study would not have been possible.

I would like to extend my thanks to the research center Ness Wadia College of Commerce for their administrative support and guidance during the course of research.

I would also like to express my gratitude to Indira Institute of Management Pune for their consistent co-operation and motivation throughout the research work.

Last but not the least my special thanks to my parents, friends and colleagues for their continuous support and motivation throughout the course of my research work.

Deepa Pillai