ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I sincerely thank my guru, supervisor Prof. (Dr.) Paresh V. Virparia for his encouraging guidance, insight, patience, and support in this long research journey. The great Chandragupt cannot be famous emperor without Chanakya. We cannot imagine Vivekanand without Shri Ramkrushna Paramhans. This research work is completed due to the consistent efforts and encouragement of my supervisor. He had always listened to my ideas and difficulties calmly; and suggested workable solutions. He also helped me to put those solutions in form of documents.

I am grateful to Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya for providing this research opportunity to me. Thank you for providing guidance of research and development committee at the end of each term. I am fortunate that my research work is kept on the right track by many eminent personalities and experts of research and development committee specially Dr. Bankim Patel, Dr. N. N. Jani, Dr. Mehul Raval, Dr. Asim Banerjee, and Dr. D. B. Choksi. Thanks to all research and development committee experts for pointing the weaknesses and giving me the right direction. I appreciate the help and guidance provided by senior and fellow researchers of Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya.

I am also thankful to Uka Tarsadia Univesity where I have worked during my research tenure. Special credit goes to Dr. Bankim Patel, for constantly encouraging me to complete this research work. As and when required he granted leave, provided resources and other support to carry out the research work.
My family and friends have also provided a great support to my research work. I obliged to my mother and late father for all their great efforts to make my life smoothen. I admire support of my wife and daughter to complete my research work.
