Acknowledgements

I would like to record my deep gratitude to:

Dr. Ashok Thorat, Director, IASE, Pune, my Ph.D. Supervisor, who has ungrudgingly guided me through every step of my research;

Prof. S.B. Gokhale, Retd. Professor of English, University of Pune, Pune, for not only suggesting me the area of my research but also enlightening me about the way I should go ahead with my work;

Dr. Munira Lokhandwala, Associate Professor of English, Abeda Inamdar Senior College, Pune, for her critical appraisal of the topic of my research and also for her words of encouragement;

Dr. Madhuri Gokhale, Assistant Professor of English, Fergusson College Pune, who has been my constant source of inspiration as a model teacher, and who was always ready to clarify all my doubts storming in my confused mind.

I would like to record my special thanks to the Librarian, National Film Archives of India, Pune, for making available to me all the relevant materials for my dissertation.

I would also like to offer my special thanks to Ms. Triveni Shende, Administrative Officer, IASE, Pune, for smoothening the official process of my research work.

I would like to bow my head to: My father Dr. Kunjaban Patel, Principal (Retired), for giving me constant guidance all through my work; and My mother Mrs. Dharitri Patel for constantly hammering me to move fast forward along the road to academic achievements.

I would like to thank my younger brother Er. Saswat Patel who has always wanted to see me move ahead of others.

Lastly, I would also like to thank Balaji Telefilms Ltd. for giving me the opportunity to work as an Assistant Director in a Tele-Serial, and the owners (sons of the great filmmaker Mehboob Khan) of Mehboob Studio where I worked as a Story-Editor giving me the chance to gain some inside knowledge and understanding of the working style of Bollywood Film Industry, and also for facilitating me to have informal interactions with some filmmakers. This experience has helped me a lot in undertaking the present study.
