ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My Ph.D years and this thesis have had mentorship from numerous outstanding individuals both within my family and outside it. It is to these individuals that my heartfelt gratitude and thanks go out to, probably words will fall short, for without their help, this thesis would not have been possible.

First and foremost I would like to thank my guide and path-finder, Dr. Kalpana Wandrekar, for her incessant guidance, constructive criticism, wonderful analysis, enthusiasm, inspiration, and her great efforts to explain things clearly and simply. Throughout my thesis writing period, she provided encouragement, sound advice and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without her.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to the Librarian of CIEFL University, Hyderabad, Mr. Rao and Vice - Chancellor, Dr. Maya Pandit for allowing me to use their library. It gives me great pleasure to put on record my deepest gratitude to Dr. Neeta Ramaiyya, ex – head of the Department of Canadian Study Centre, SNDT University, Mumbai, who liberally allowed me to use the reference books from her library. Also, I take this opportunity to thank the staff of Jaykar Library, Pune University, British Library, Pune, Shivaji University Library, Kolhapur, Osmania University Library, Hyderabad and American Study Centre Library, Hyderabad, for providing me necessary reference books and journals without which this study would have been impossible.

I must express my sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Vijay Joshi, Pune for excellent setting works of my thesis and technical help in preparation of the thesis.

I thank all those whose names may have escaped attention here but have in one way or the other contributed to my work.

I sought inspiration and I owe a great deal to my father, Mr. Manik Purude and my mother, Mrs. Nanda Purude, who unquestionably have given their years for the primrose path in my life. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to them for their blessings, help and wishes for the successful completion of this work. Thank you for your insights, guidance and support! It is to them that I dedicate my thesis.
Words fail me in expressing my unquestionable gratitude to a true companion of my life, my husband, Dr. Surendra Daware, who has followed the dictates of my heart and paid sincere and serious attention at my academic endeavours to the top of his bent. He has really proved to be a better-half and accommodated himself in order to lead me near this mark.

My deep appreciation goes to all my family members and my little son, Aadya for his patience and all the sacrifices he made during the period of my Ph.D research.
