ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis in hand necessitate several years’ time, travel of thousands of miles’ and the generous support of numerous people to whom I am highly grateful. First of all, I owe an unending debt of gratitude to the Almighty God, who bestowed me with an opportunity of being a learner of an absolute humble supervisor, my revered guide and supervisor Dr. Amit Kauts, Principal, MGN college of Education, Jalandhar, without whose unreserved, moral and concrete support and indulgent guidance, the long processes of envisioning, designing, researching and finally inscription of this thesis could have not been skilled. I am highly indebted to him and wish to express my deepest gratitude for the motivation given to me since the inception of the idea of the study and the constant back-up till the compliance of this discourse.

I also take the opportunity to express my absolute gratefulness to Dr. Deepa Sikand Kauts who always offered me the most valuable suggestions which enabled me to steer my project to successful completion. She not only gave me the much needed enlightening suggestions for the valuable time spared for me as also facilitating the ways to meet the facilities and resources available at the research place.

I place my obligations and special recognition to the principals of various institutions for their expertise in facilitating the data collection. I feel particularly beholden to all students on whom experiment was performed and teachers of various schools for extending their full cooperation by responding the questionnaire; a basic and dependable necessity to bring the present work on horizon.

The study has also been benefited from the generous support of the institutions and individuals outside the research institution. Archivists and librarians at the library and documentation units of NCERT, G.N.D.U, Amritsar, Panjab University Chandigarh and Lovely Professional University, Jalandhar led me to numerous sources that brought the research into focus and its subjects to life.

I wish to express my special thanks to all the researchers, authors and publishers, whose work I have consulted and quoted in my research. Warm thanks are due to eminent educationists of GNDU and LPU my friends and colleagues whose constant stimulus, critical comments, valuable suggestions and deep concern were a strong source of inspiration throughout the various phases of this work.

I owe a lot to my parents, who encouraged and helped me at every stage of my personal and academic life, and longed to see this achievement come true. It is difficult to put in words my sentiments for my brother Dr. Lokesh Gupta and my sisters for invaluable support and inspiration in my career.

I am very much indebted to my family, my husband Dr. Girish Aeri, my son Mridul Aeri stood by me when I left, when I came back; when I worked and when I relaxed, mother-in-law and sister-in-law Dr. Priyanka Aeri, who supported me in every possible way to see the completion of this work.

Mr. Vijay Kumar Chechi, deserve special appreciation for the for data computation and Mr. R.K.Aggarwal and Mr. Anmol for immense patience they displayed in designing the draft of the thesis in the present form and accomplishing the computer work.

I wholeheartedly dedicate this work to all those persons who love teaching, join this profession and devote their lives sincerely for the enlightenment of the society.
